A Sedan for the Greeleyite-Copperhead Coalition.

Greeleyism is dead. Nothing remains but to bury it decently in November. The popular verdict against the Coalition is not only conclusive, it is overwhelming. In Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana the victory is magnificent and unexpected. Where we had looked for losses we have gains, and where the Greeleyites had boasted most loudly they have lost heavily. On their chosen battle-ground of Pennsylvania, where they were most confident and had the best grounds for confidence, their defeat is most crushing. Every resource, every device, has failed them.

The Keystone State responds to their desperate campaign of calumny and treachery by an unprecedented majority of at least 21,000. The Tribune clamored for early returns from Philadelphia as a security against fraud, and before the polls were closed the Professor had learned that the Quaker City had rolled up 27,000 majority for the party of real reform.

In Indiana, which was counted, reasonably, as Democratic, the majority against us has been overcome, and we have at least 5,000 upon our side.

Ohio, over which Mr. GREELEY's paper has bragged unceasingly, and which SCHURZ and HASSAUREK claimed to carry in their ample pockets, has gained on the splendid vote of last year, and gives 16,000 for the sold standard.

In the words of HORACE GREELEY, "Gen. GRANT never has been defeated, and he never will be."

PENNSYLVANIA.

The people of Pennsylvania voted yesterday for Governor, Auditor-General and Judge of the Supreme Court, the members of a Convention to revise the State Constitution, twenty-seven Congressmen, including three from the State at large, eleven members of the Senate, (twenty-two holding over,) the complete House of Representatives, and city and county officers. Our special and other telegrams, printed below, show that the Republicans have swept the field, electing their candidates for the several offices as follows:

Governor—Gen. JOHN F. HARTRANFT.
Judge of the Supreme Court—ULYSSES MERCUR.
Auditor-General—Gen. HARRISON ALLEN.

OHIO.

The officers elected in Ohio were the Secretary of State, Judge of the Supreme Court, and Member of the Board of Education, twenty members of Congress, and a full Legislature. Here, too, the Republicans have won a gratifying victory, electing their candidates as follows:

Secretary of State—ALLEN T. WIKOFF.
Judge of the Supreme Court—JOHN WELCH.
Member of the Board of Education—RICHARD B. PORTER.

INDIANA.

Indiana elected a full board of State officers, Legislature, thirteen members of Congress, and minor officials. As elsewhere, the Republicans have ended the contest by a glorious victory, electing their State ticket as follows:

Governor—Gen. THOMAS M. BROWNE.
Lieutenant-Governor—LEONIDAS SEXTON.
Attorney-General—JAMES C. DENNY.
Secretary of State—WILLIAM A. CURRY.
Auditor—JAMES M. WILDMAN.
Treasurer—JOHN B. GLOVER.
Superintendent Public Instruction—BENJAMIN W. SMITH.

NEBRASKA.

The election in Nebraska was for State officers, Legislature and one Congressman, and the result is a Republican victory, the successful candidates being as follows:

Governor—ROBERT W. FURNAS.
Chief-Justice—GEORGE B. LAKE.
Associate Justice—DANIEL GANTT.
Associate Justice—SAMUEL MAXWELL.
Secretary of State—JOHN J. GOSPER.
Auditor—JOHN B. WESTON.
Treasurer—HENRY A. KOENIG.
Attorney-General—J. R. WEBSTER.
Congressman—LORENZO CROUNSE.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Sweep of the Whirlwind—Philadelphia Gives Hartranft 25,000 Majority—The State Safe for 30,000.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8—9 P. M.—The returns from this city foot up better and better. The majority for Hartranft can scarcely fall below 30,000.

Gen. Hartranft is at the Union League, where he receives the warm congratulations of his friends. Additional returns from the interior counties continue favorable, and majorities are no longer scrutinized, as there is no longer any doubt of the result.

Hartranft is probably elected by 30,000 majority.

Hartranft's Majority Between 30,000 and 40,000—Democratic Strongholds Show Large Republican Gains.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8—9½ P. M.—The returns even from Democratic strongholds look brighter every minute. Berks and Lehigh show large Republican gains.

William H. Kemble feels sure Philadelphia will give 25,000 majority, and Hartranft's majority in the State will be not less than 30,000.

The sorehead's are cursing McClure, and say he sold them out to the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The returns from the country districts come in slowly, but show uniform Republican gains. The prospect now is that Hartranft will get not less than 35,000 majority outside of Philadelphia, which will make his majority in the State between 30,000 and 40,000.

The Same Story—Uniform Republican Gains—Gains in Congressmen.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8—10 P. M.—Returns from several towns in Montgomery County, the residence of Hartranft, show uniform gains upon last year, when the Democratic majority was 744.

All the returns thus far received from Chester, Columbia, Berks and Delaware counties also show uniform Republican gains.

The Republican gain of 200 in Fayette County will defeat Henry D. Foster, the present Democratic Congressman from the Twenty-first District.

The three Congressmen at large are elected by overwhelming majorities, and there is a prospect of a Republican gain in the Sixth District.

Philadelphia Gives 25,000 Majority for Hartranft—The Streets Alive With People—No End of Enthusiasm.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8—11 P. M.—Hartranft's majority in Philadelphia is now estimated at 25,000. In all the large cities—Pittsburg, Harrisburg, Reading and the others—notwithstanding the fact that the "Reform" repeaters polled a heavy vote, Hartranft has gained tremendously.

In an interview with Alexander McClure, the well-known "reform" wire-puller, the following language was used by him: "Bucklew may come to Philadelphia with a majority from Erie and Crawford Counties, but not sufficient to overcome the majority here."

In the Fourth Ward, the great stronghold of the Democracy, a decided Hartranft victory is rightfully expected.

Toward the closing of the polls large sums of money, in some flagrantly public instances as high as $40, were offered for the purchase of votes for the "reform" ticket, but no takers were found. The lights that burned brightly during the early part of the evening at the Democratic Head-quarters, on Walnut-street, are now extinguished, as are the few anxious hangers-round for good news.

The Victory Overwhelming—The People Wild with Enthusiasm.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8—11½ P. M.—The Republicans have stopped counting their majorities here, as they are getting past computation. The victory is simply overwhelming, and everybody is in the street celebrating it. Torchlight processions and music are the order of the night, and miles on miles of streets are crowded with people—men, women and children—all taking part in the common jubilee.

I will send the latest estimate of majorities by counties, but it is useless to send scattering returns when the result is known and is all one way.

Scenes at the Liberal Head-Quarters—Greeleyites Give up the Fight.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8—11:50 P. M.—At the Liberal Head-quarters on Walnut-street, above Ninth, a motley crowd of Bucklew adherents and also congregated to hear the returns from the State. In the third story of the building the telegraphic dispatches were received, as was also the news from the various wards of the city. Seated at the head of a six-foot table was McClure, who, with book-pencil in hand, was making memoranda figures of Hartranft and Mann as a piece of foolscap paper, as fast correspondent arrived in the room. "What's the majority for Hartranft in the 21st?" was the general salutation of each new-comer into the room. "Why, twenty-two thousand, at least," was McClure's response. "Oh, it can't be, Colonel," said a youth at the other side of the table. "Well, you take the paper and count up the figures, young man," replied the "reform" manager. The paper exhibited the result was handed around to every one of the Committee in the room, but no one could find any mistake in the Colonel's addition. Slowly the returns from the State came in, and as the dispatches showing gains for Hartranft were opened they were quickly thrown under the table. Bill Buddiman, a lately-defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for Judge of the Quarter Sessions, came into the room and announced that there was an anxious crowd outside waiting for news, and as there was nothing favorable to give them, he (Buddiman) suggested that they be quietly told to go to their homes. "That's a good idea, Buddiman. Suppose you open one of the windows and address them," said McClure. "I don't care about doing it, Alick. Besides, it's your place," retorted Buddiman. "Well, I aint going to do it," replied McClure, and thus the gaping crowd, after standing in the street for more than an hour gradually fell away. A few minutes later a free fight took place in the room, the gas was turned off, and when the crowd left the doors were locked. McClure concedes 15,000 majority to the State to Hartranft; so does Col. Forney.

Philadelphia Enthusiastic—The State Senate Republican—Greeley's Position.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., Oct. 8—12 P. M.—The Republicans have swept the city by 20,000 majority, elected one Senator and two Representatives, hold our own in Congressmen, and secure the State Senate beyond peradventure, for the Republicans, leaving McClure out in the cold.

Chestnut-street, and especially the newspaper offices, are crowded. There are 40,000 people on Broad-street, opposite the Union League Club, creating great enthusiasm. The Press office is deserted.

An illuminated copy of Nast's caricature of Greeley, representing the "Philosopher" falling to the ground between two stools, has just been displayed in front of the Union League Club-house, and caused immense cheers and laughter.

The Vote in Pittsburg—Despair of the Greeleyites.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PITTSBURG Penn., Oct. 8.—In this city the Democrats and Greeleyites, at their head-quarters, are having a solemn time, reading the meagre returns which come to them, and trying to keep up their courage by figuring the Democratic gains on the Democratic vote of last year, instead of gains on majorities, which are almost always in favor of Republicans. Some Democrats still claim the State by 5,000 majority, but most of them give it up, and are betting that the majority for Hartranft will not be over 6,000. Returns from this city are still very incomplete, but the count has already shown a gain on last year's majority of 2,800.

From Pittsburg—Close of the Polls—Hartranft's Election Assured—Despondency Reigns at the Greeley Headquarters.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PITTSBURG, Penn., Oct. 8—6 P. M.—The contest is over, and we are awaiting the count of the votes. The day has been exceedingly favorable for a full vote, and this has been an addition of at least 5,000 to the Republican vote. The polls opened in this city and the voting generally began early after 6 o'clock. The ballots, under a special law, are counted every hour. Both parties had arranged to bring out a large vote early. The Republicans especially urged forward the negro voters. The scheme of challenging by the coalition party began at once in several of the wards, but it was promptly checked by the assurance that the law would be invoked, if necessary, to prevent frivolous delay. "If these men have the right to vote," said Republicans, "they shall vote, and you can take only the usual and proper measures to determine their right." The Pennsylvania Ku-klux then retired from the field. The early returns of the hourly count were watched with great interest up to 4 or 5 o'clock. The newspaper offices displayed large bulletins as fast as their figures were received, and the walks and streets around were almost impassable for the crowds watching for the latest news. The first returns were favorable to the Republicans. They gave indications that the expectations as to results would be surpassed, but the question was, would the same rates of majorities hold till the total vote was cast. Each hour the counts showed better and better, till about noon it became established beyond a doubt that the majority in Allegheny County would not fall below 9,000. McClure last week would concede only 5,000, and said he did not think it would be over 3,000. This shows how little dependence could be placed on his claims for the State. The Republicans were encouraged from the verification of their expectations in regard to this county to trust their calculations for the whole State. But little news came from the country, but what little was received made it clear that there was no defection that had not been allowed. The Republican counties as early as 6 o'clock were felt to have done much better than the safe estimates that had been made, and so much better that no possible frauds in Democratic counties could prevent the election of Hartranft. The hourly returns telegraphed from Philadelphia showed that the vigorous efforts to drive out the repeaters had been successful, and had given the honest voters in McMullen's ward a chance to assert themselves. This encouraged the voters here. All the news combined to increase the confidence of the Republicans.

When the hour of closing the polls arrived, there was no more doubt of Hartranft's election than there was in Vermont at the same hour of election day of the success of the Republican ticket in that State. It had become, in the estimation of Republicans, simply a question of majorities. The Democratic head-quarters had, about noon, however, put out a bulletin that there were great gains for Bucklew all over the State. A little later this was changed, and it was announced, "Returns from all parts of the State show Bucklew will go into Philadelphia with 30,000 majority." Inquiries showed that this was a mere invention, too transparent for its object to inspire their voters with confidence. It simply afforded amusement for passers-by, who within a few yards read the detailed statements on bulletins of the Chronicle office, giving the lie to the Democratic placard, which had no effect to decrease the confidence of Republicans.

Returns from the Interior Show Uniform Republican Gains Over Last Year.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 8—8:40 P. M.—Only scattering returns outside of the city have yet been received, but they show uniformly large Republican gains over the majorities of last year.

Washington County, which was claimed by the Democrats by 400, appears to be an even count.

Sixteen voting districts in Allechany County, of the 116, give a Republican gain over the majority of last year of 976.

A Sorry Democratic Spectacle in Pittsburg—McClure and Randall Telegraph, "Philadelphia Gone 30,000 Republican"—The Democratic Shout, "We Are Sold Out to Scoundrels!"

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PITTSBURG, Penn., Oct. 8—10½ P. M.—W. D. More, Chairman of the Allegheny County Democratic Committee, has just made a speech, in the Democratic Head-quarters, to purport as follows:

"Order! Silence! I understand that you have been deceived by false dispatches. Now, we have not done it. Everything that we have done has been straightforward and honest from Alpha to Omega—that means from beginning to end, if you don't understood Hebrew. It always shall be. I will tell you the truth. After trying with Philadelphia for about four hours, I have got a dispatch from McClure and Randall, in which they admit that Hartranft will have in that city a majority of 30,000. A majority of 30,000—that means that we have been sold out by scoundrels. We can hardly beat that. I want to tell you the truth, because I don't want you to lose money on it."

This sentiment was received standing and in silence by a crowd of about three hundred, many of whom had been betrayed by the lying bulletins at Moro's head-quarters, and the Leader newspaper, during the afternoon and early evening, into making foolish bets. Many of them seemed to be men who could ill afford to lose. The victory now is disputed by nobody.

The Result Declared in Pittsburg—Enthusiasm of the People Unbounded.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 8—10½ P. M.—It is now fully conceded on all sides that Pennsylvania has been carried for Hartranft by an unprecedented majority. This fact has become fully impressed on the minds of the people, and the enthusiasm with which the news is received is indescribable. All the population of Pittsburg seems to be out of doors.

The Republicans had engaged the City Hall in which to receive and publicly announce the returns. A band of music was present. The hall will hold 4,000 or more, and is the largest in the city. It was packed from an early hour in the evening, and must have been visited by 15,000 or 20,000 people.

In front of the Chronicle office were thousands more standing in a compact mass to read the bulletins. About 30% o'clock the magnitude of the victory that had been won was conceived by the people, and at once a vast procession began to parade, and music and shouts in one continuous round filled the air, so that nowhere on the streets about the business centre could a conversation be carried on in an ordinary tone of voice.

Colored lights and fire-works flashed on every side. So great a demonstration has been seen but few times in this city. Perhaps there was never a greater one. The result is undoubtedly somewhat of a surprise to people inside the State, and is entirely unexpected by citizens of other States. Still, it has not been entirely unforeseen by the best informed.

Lancaster County Gives Hartranft 4,500 Majority.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LANCASTER, Penn., Oct. 8.—Returns from this county indicate 4,500 majority for Hartranft, a Republican gain of 700.

Luzerne County—Republican Loss of Only Eighty-Five.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WILKESBARRE, Penn., Oct. 8.—Thirty-one districts of Luzerne County heard from show a Republican loss of only eighty-five. The county will go Democratic about 1,600 for Buckalew, Shoemaker, Republican, is elected Congressman.

OHIO.

The Georgia Tactics of the Greeleyites—Negro Voters Challenged by Wholesale.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 8—2½ P. M.—The weather is beautiful here and throughout the State, which bids fair for a vast turnout, and a very full vote. The polls opened as a rule this morning, and everything has proceeded in peace and order up to the hour. The voting places are densely thronged, and the vote in this city will be very large. In the quarter where the disturbance occurred last night everything is quiet. The tactics pursued by the Greeley managers is the same that prevailed in North Carolina and Georgia. There is a systematic and wholesale challenging of colored voters throughout the city. Every man with a black skin is compelled to swear in his vote. Your correspondent stood nearly an hour at the polls of the Sixth Ward, where the colored vote is chiefly cast, and every colored voter but one during that period was challenged. Well-known citizens, resident of the ward from five to twelve years and property-holders, were impudently challenged on the most frivolous pretexts by the Greeleyites. As a consequence, the voting in that way is greatly impeded, and the colored men are subjected to an exasperating degree of annoyance, embarrassment and intimidation, to which no Greeleyite, however brutal-looking, is exposed. These tactics prevail throughout the city, and are part of the plan resolved upon by the Greeley managers to reduce the Republican vote.

Republican Gains in the Western Reserve—The State Republican by 15,000.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 8.—The Western Reserve, except Cleveland City, returns large gains for the Republican ticket over last year.

The Democrats gain in Toledo, but lose in the townships of Lucas County.

Sandusky shows a large gain for Sloane (Democrat) for Congress, and the contest between him and Foster is evidently close.

It is evident now, from the manner in which the returns are coming, that Ohio has gone Republican by at least 15,000.

Seventy-seven townships and cities, including parts of Columbus and Toledo, show 1,500 Republican gain over last year. In every county outside of the large cities, where the Democrats claimed accessions from the soreheed Republicans, they have lost.

Ashtabula County, where they were alleged to be strongest, shows large Republican gains over last year.

The following leading towns give majorities as follows: Elyria, Lorain County, 94 Democratic gain. Youngstown, 97 Republican gain. The Third Ward of Columbus gives 140 Democratic gain. The majority in Franklin County will be about the same as last year. Painesville gives 97 Democratic gain; Steubenville, 178 Republican gain; Xenia, 191 Republican gain; Piqua, 93 Republican gain; all over last year.

In Toledo, the Democrats carry the city by defection on the liquor question. The Republican majority last year was 500; but the townships in Lucas County gain on last year, so that Sherwood's election to Congress is assured.

Republican Gains Reported Throughout the State—What the Early Returns Showed.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 8.—Miami County, Monroe township, gives a Republican gain of 98 over 1871; one township of Ashtabula County gives a Republican gain of 59 over 1871; in Dudley township, Hardin County, the Republican gain is 22.

In Goshen a Republican gain of 14 is reported. In Taylor Creek a gain of 7 is made. In Xenia, First Ward, in Greene County, a Republican gain of 8 over 1871 is claimed.

Steubenville, in Jefferson County, gives a Republican majority of 380, a gain of 176 over last year. The returns from seventeen towns scattered through a dozen counties give a gain of 620 over last year. The Republican gains over last year seem to be uniform throughout the country districts.

Nineteen towns scattered in twelve counties show a Republican gain of 804 over last year.

Nine P. M.—The returns from a great number of towns show almost uniform Republican gains. Parsons is certainly elected to Congress from the Cuyanoga District by a large majority. The returns also indicate Foster's election in the Tenth District by an increased majority.

A Quiet Election and Large Vote—Republican Gains Indicated.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 8.—The election has passed off throughout the State, so far as known at this writing, peacefully, and with a very large vote polled, stimulated by the very fine weather which has prevailed all day.

Both parties have worked as though eternal vigilance was the price of liberty, and the prospect is that the aggregate vote, after all, will be nearly, if not quite, equal to that of October, 1868.

The counting of the vote is a slow process, and it will be a late hour before enough is known to determine the actual result in the State.

The Third Ward of Lancaster gives sixty-six Democratic majority, a Republican gain of three over 1871.

Republican Gains in Cleveland—Parsons, Republican, Elected to Congress by 2,000.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 8—11 P. M.—A crowd of eight or ten thousand is assembled at the Rink, listening to the dispatches sent in. Immense enthusiasm prevails as the large Republican gains appear.

Three wards of the city yet to report, and Parsons, Republican, for Congress, is still 787 ahead.

The towns show a majority already of 650, and he is elected by fully 2,000.

Sandusky City gives Sloane 700 majority over Foster, Republican.

Cincinnati Gone Democratic—The Vote for Congressmen.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8—10 P. M.—Returns come in slowly. The indications now are that the county has gone Democratic by at least three thousand.

Nicholson is probably defeated in the First District.

Taft's election is claimed.

Hayes is in doubt, with the chances against him.

Gains for the Republicans in the State Ticket—A Majority Still Claimed for Foster and Congress—Greeleyism Stamped Out.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 8—10 P. M.—The returns come in slowly, and nothing definite as yet received from Cleveland or Cincinnati, except that Parsons is handsomely elected to Congress in the Cleveland District.

The City of Columbus is about half in, and

OHIO.

The Delegation in Congress—Thirteen Republicans and Eight Democrats.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 8—11 A. M.—The Sixth District is tarown in doubt by the later dispatches, which show that Sherwood ran very far behind his ticket in Lucas County, but the chances are in his favor.

So far as heard from the Ohio delegation in the next Congress will stand twelve Republicans, and seven Democrats, and one District in doubt.

In the Third District the Democratic candidate John W. Bohn, ran 400 ahead of his ticket, in Butler County, but he has probably failed to average the same throughout, so that John Q. Smith, (Republican,) is, undoubtedly, elected in that District. Wherever the Democrats have made any material gains, it is shown to have been by the aid of the German Republicans, who have followed their bad advisers into ignominious defeat. The strong Democratic counties of Crawford, Richland, Tuscarawas, Allen, &c., show reduced Democratic majorities.

The Latest—Republicans Claim the State by 15,000 to 17,000.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 9—1 A. M.—Cincinnati and Hamilton County are very decided against us, by how much it is impossible to say at this hour. Both Congressional Districts are lost. The returns at this point indicate that Sherwood, in the Sixth District, though running behind his ticket, is nevertheless elected by over 1,000 majority. Foster is also pressed, but is probably safe. There is nothing from Sprague's district, the Fifteenth, except the vote on the State ticket, which indicates that he is elected.

At 1 A. M., 316 towns and cities, which does not include Cincinnati, give 2,553 net Republican gain over last year. The closest estimates indicate that the Republican gains in the State at large will fully equal all loss on the cities of Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Toledo, and give a Republican majority in the State of from 15,000 to 17,000, or from 6,000 to 7,000 better than was expected a week ago. The only loss is the Congressmen in Hamilton County.

How the Democrats Carried Cincinnati—The Naturalization Mill Vigorously Worked.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—The vote in this city has been very large, and the result has been a general surprise. The business of naturalizing has been carried on very extensively for the past few days, the examinations being conducted with remarkable looseness. Instead of the personal examination required, squads, varying in number from twenty to fifty, had their papers granted at a single examination. That many have thus obtained a quasi right to vote who were not qualified admits of little doubt. Moreover, there has been considerable repeating.

Majority of 15,000 Conceded—Thirteen Republican Congressmen.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Partial returns from half of the counties in the State show Republican gains of 4,000 over the vote of Hayes in 1871, when the Republican majority reached 30,000. This will be reduced by Democratic gains in Hamilton Lucas and Cuyahoga Counties, leaving a Republican majority not less than 15,000 in the State. As the Republican head-quarters it is claimed that reported and unreported gains will leave the majority about as last year, when it was rising 20,000.

The following districts elect Republican members to Congress:

Third District—John Q. Smith.
Fourth District—L. D. Gunckle.
Sixth District—L. E. Sherwood.
Eighth District—William Lawrence.
Ninth District—James W. Robinson.
Tenth District—Charles Foster.
Eleventh District—H. S. Bundy.
Fifteenth District—W. P. Sprague.
Sixteenth District—L. Denters.
Seventeenth District—L. D. Woodworth.
Eighteenth District—James Monroe.
Nineteenth District—J. Garfield.
Twentieth District—E. D. Parsons.

The following districts elected Democratic members to Congress:

First District—Milton Sayler.
Second District—H. B. Banning.
Fifth District—Charles N. Lewison.
Seventh District—Lawrence T. Neal.
Twelfth District—H. J. Jewett.
Thirteenth District—M. J. Southard.
Fourteenth District—John Berry.

Returns Slowly Received—Thirty Towns Give Republican Gain of 920.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8.—The returns continue to come in slowly. About thirty towns and townships heard from give the Republicans a gain of about 800 on the vote of 1870. Browne's majority in Randolph County is estimated at 1,200. In Howard's Township, Howard County the Democrats gain 20. The Democrats gain 120 in Richmond City. In Concord Township, Elkhart County, the Republican gain is 127. The Republicans gain 18 in Cambridge City.

The Estimate at 1 A. M.—The State Safe by 3,000 Majority.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 9—1 A. M.—It is now 1 A. M., and not enough has been heard to determine the result in this State.

Col. Foster yet adheres to his estimate of 5,000 majority. The Democrats are not claiming anything. They have gone to bed generally despondent.

MISSOURI.

The Good News from the Elections—Henry Wilson in St. Louis.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8.—Intense excitement prevailed here to-night over the news from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The newspaper offices have been thronged with crowds of people eagerly anxiously waiting for news. The Republicans have been very exultant and enthusiastic, while the Democrats have been correspondingly depressed and gruff. Enough returns have already been received to indicate the result, and the Democrats feel that the fight is over, that defeat in November stares them in the face, and they are saddened and disspirited.

Henry Wilson, who arrived today, made a congratulatory speech both at the Democrat and Globe offices, to-night, and was received with the utmost enthusiasm. He will have a tremendous audience to-morrow night, when he will speak on the issues of the day.

Canvass in Missouri is brightening daily. Great crowds flock to hear Henderson and other Republican speakers, while the Democratic meetings as a rule are slimly attended and devoid of enthusiasm. There is no doubt but that large numbers will vote for Grant, and the State ticket, and with proper work carry the State in November.

The Republican candidates nominated for Congress yesterday in the three districts of this county are unexceptionable men, and two of them are sure of election. This may also be said of nearly all other districts in the State, and there is no doubt whatever that the Missouri delegation in the next Congress will be largely increased over that of the last.

Republican Gains in all Parts of the State—Effect of Curtin and the Claire's Speeches.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 9—2½ A. M.—Returns received at this point from counties in the eastern, western and southern parts of the State indicate the most unexpected Republican gains over the vote for Stanton in 1871, taking which as a basis of calculation, and presuming that the northern tier of counties will show similar gains, it is safe to telegraph that the Republican majority will not be less than 25,000, and may be between 25,000 and 30,000. Our gains in municipal are as wonderful as those on the State ticket, the Republicans electing city, county and borough officers in localities where similar results have not been achieved for years. Still another feature of our gains is that in the regions where Curtin and McClure made their greatest efforts our gains are the largest. Harrisburg has elected a Mayor, Treasurer, and carried every ward by 700 majority, which is a gain of 400 over the vote of 1871, and a gain of the entire City Government over the vote of 1870. The rejoicing is tremendous in all parts of the State. Gen. Cameron's friends justly regard the result as a vindication of his life's career, as he was made the main issue in the contest, against whom the malcontents directed their entire fire.

Splendid Reports from Eastern Pennsylvania—The Stronghold of Democracy Gives Magnificent Cleanup Majorities.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

READING, Penn., Oct. 8.—The election in Eastern Pennsylvania has passed off quietly, and the returns in every district indicate heavy Republican gains in this stronghold of Democracy. Berks County, where the Democrats calculated upon a majority of 7,000, the figure has been reduced to 5,973. The City of Reading, which last year gave a majority of 288 for the regular State Democratic ticket, turned the majority, and gives Hartranft a compliment of fourteen votes. Lebanon County, together with Schuylkill, reports immense gains. Killinger, Republican, will go to Congress by an increased majority. Clymer, of Berks, runs behind his ticket. Lancaster County gives Hartranft a majority of 4,875 to 4,800. Smith, Republican candidate for Congress, will probably poll 4,000 majority in Lancaster County. In Montgomery County the gains are immense. The following majorities in the counties are as near correct as can be determined at this hour:

Berks County—Buckalew, 6,000.
Lancaster County—Hartranft, 4,500.
Lebanon County—Hartranft, 1,400.
Montgomery County—Buckalew 7,400.
Chester County—Hartranft, 3,000.
Schuylkill County—Hartranft, 400.
Dauphin County—Hartranft, 1,500.
Cumberland County—Buckalew, 400.
Delaware County—Hartranft, 1,900.
Northampton County—Buckalew, 2,000.
Union County—Hartranft, 311.

In this city the excitement is intense. A procession of nearly a mile in length is parading the streets, with torches, banners, and bands of music. Telegrams are being read, giving the State to Hartranft by 30,000 majority, Philadelphia and the western counties increase in like proportion, the State will give 35,000 majority.

Congressman, Governor and Legislature Republican—Gain of 6½ Over Two Years Ago.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

OMAHA, Nebraska, Oct. 8.—The returns indicate a Republican majority of at least 3,000 for Congressman, Governor and the State ticket. Three-fourths of the Legislature will be Republican.

Omaha City and Douglass County are Republican by a small majority, unless changed by an unexpected Democratic gain in one ward not yet counted. The Republican gain is about 600 over two years ago.

The Late Election—Unprecedented Frauds—Intimidation, Violence and Murder—How "Increased Democratic Majorities" Were Procured—Probable Surrender of the Straight Democracy.

From Our Own Correspondent.

ATLANTA, Ga., Saturday, Oct. 5, 1872.

It is the old, old story. Never, perhaps, in the history of American politics has there occurred a case parallel to the farcical election just passed in this State. It was worse than a farce. To say that it was an unprecedented fraud fails to express the fact as it is. It was a crime, and that, too, in many instances of the darkest and most damning character. Negroes were not only intimidated, their votes thrown out, and others supplied corresponding in numbers, but they were, in many places, driven away from the polls by armed men, officers and police of local governments. This was the case in Atlanta. About three hundred were thus driven away, to make room for illegal voters, who polled the Democratic ticket. In other precincts—as, for instance, at Macon—they were shot, some dead upon the spot, others wounded. It is true that as Macon one white Democrat was killed; and it is claimed by Democratic apologists that the negroes began the fight. It is also true that Jeff. Long, the colored leader of the negroes in possession of the ground, has the reputation of being an imprudent and violent man. But it appears that the negroes had reached the polling-place in advance of most of the whites, had formed a line, single breast, and were voting one by one, and quietly leaving as they voted. The election was thus proceeding, it would seem, quietly and orderly, when the Democrats demanded admission to the polls to the exclusion of the negroes. They were unwilling to observe the homely but equitable rule, "first come first served," to allow the column to vote and pass on, they taking their turn in order. They demanded that the line should be broken, and that the colored men be made to give place. Long, on the part of the negroes, insisted that the voting should proceed as commenced. High words and threats ensued. Pistols and knives were appealed to, and for some time the riot raged most furiously, resulting in the death of two negroes and one white man, and the serious wounding of six other colored men.

Of course the contest could have but one issue. The negroes were driven away from the polls, and the white men took possession. Colored men and Republicans refused any further participation in the election; hence the enormous "Democratic gains" which have been triumphantly heralded all over the country. The bloody sequel, yet untold to their auditors abroad, contains the brief but satisfactory explanation.

In Troupe County, the Tax Collector's bond was canceled by his sureties two days before the election. The negroes were paying their poll-tax by the hundreds, and very soon the name of every colored voter would have been upon the tax books. To put a stop to this, the case just mentioned was resorted to. No one was authorized to receive and receipt for poll-taxes, and so seven or eight hundred negroes were disfranchised. We have similar reports, about less well authenticated, from some of the more remote counties of the State.

Up to this writing seventy-five counties have been heard from, giving Smith, the Democratic-Greeley candidate for Governor, a larger majority than his entire party vote at the special election nine months ago! And yet in the face of all the well-known acts of fraud and violence he and his party are wild with joy over the great Democratic gains!" In a public address, made night before last, to about one hundred and fifty of his party, he congratulated the people of the State upon their election of an honest Administration, and said that the campaign had just barely opened. It was now the duty of every Democrat and honest man, he said, to go to work and elect Horace Greeley President of the United States. He had assurances that, with the election of Greeley, the South would be restored to her power, and Radical carpet-bag nigger rule become extinct for evermore. Alluding to President Grant as a liar and a tyrant, he said he would not hesitate to use Greeley "as a means of beating Grant." "If," said the Governor-elect, "the devil himself were to come up from the infernal regions, smelling of the rankest brimstone, we would take him in preference to Grant." B. H. Hill, who, in 1869, publicly advised wives to leave their husbands and sue for a divorce, on the contingency of their husbands voting the Republican ticket, was also present, and made a speech. He was never so happy in all his life, he said. This was the beginning of the return of the good old era of Democratic supremacy, not only in Georgia, but in the United States also. Greeley must be elected. Georgia must give him an increased majority: Grant must be turned out; and, in order to this, no questions should be asked as to the antecedents of the man with whom Democrats proposed to take possession of the General Government, &c.

Considering the utter impossibility of obtaining a fair election under the existing régime in Georgia, the suggestion that the Republican State Committee withdraw all candidates and electors, and decline any further participation in the canvass or Presidential election, meets with the almost universal assent of intelligent Republicans here. Doubtless, ere this reaches you, this course will have been decided upon. Humanity seems to demand it. It is argued that it is only useless, but cruel and wicked to subject the colored people to further outrage and peril when their votes are not counted, even when cast. Indeed, a leading Democratic member of the State Senate was heard to remark publicly a few weeks before the election, that "it didn't make any of the election went, the Internal Radicals would be counted out." At least have the supporters of the Greeley Democracy become here, that they thus openly boast of a species of strategy which, in well-regulated communities, would consign its perpetrators to the State Prison.

As for the "Straights," they all voted for Smith, many of them alleging, as an excuse therefor, that Smith had never openly declared for Greeley, and that they considered him at heart one of their number. Now, however, that Smith has made a fiery declamation in behalf of Greeley, they are making preparations to run an electoral ticket of their own. Hon. Alexander H. Stephens recommends this course, and suggests O'Conor and Davis, of Virginia. In case no electoral ticket is made up in Georgia, he advises his Straight friends to take no part in the election. But the time for their action is evidently past, and intelligent observant men here consider nothing more certain than that, with perhaps a few exceptions, the straights will support Greeley on the day of the election. It may turn out otherwise, but no well-informed man here believes it. Those who are disposed to participate in the organization of a rival ticket are held up and ridiculed by the Greeley Press as "Grant-Radicals in disguise" and "enemies of our people." The old arts of social and business ostracism are brought to bear upon them with wonderful effect, and few events of the past few days all point to their unconditional surrender to the Greeley Party.

A Statement of Democratic Management—Unparalleled Outrages on the Ballot-Box.

From an Occasional Correspondent.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Saturday, Oct. 5, 1872.

I inclose you herewith a report of the Chief Superintendent of Election in Liberty County, in this State. W. S. Norman is a Democrat. His is indignant at the conduct of his perjured associates. The inclosed statement of his was sent to his son-in-law for publication. Yesterday, the editor of the Savannah Republican promised to publish it, stating that it was "for what's fair." His paper of this morning I send you, with nothing in it on the subject, except the following, viz.: "Liberty County gave Smith a plurality—213 votes to Warner's choice." He now says he will try to put this communication in next week. Of course he will do no such thing.

I send you a Republican of Sept. 25, in which the man who wrote the report about the meeting in Liberty County is fully vouched for as "being a gentleman of character and standing." The man who wrote that report was this same W. S. Norman.

Was such conduct ever before known on the part of sworn officers of an election? They were all Democrats.

Superintendents of elections are required by law to take the following oath, viz.:

"All and each of us do swear that we will faithfully superintend this day's election; that we will not, by reason of the Peace, or treasonable, the case may be,) of this county; that we will make a just and true return thereof; and not knowingly permit any one to vote unless we believe he is entitled to do so according to the laws of this State, nor knowingly prevent any one from voting who is so entitled by Law, and will not divulge for whom any vote was cast unless called on under the law to do so. So help me God."

With this oath upon their souls these Democratic managers deliberately failed to close the polls at 6 o'clock, and then threw out all the votes at Republican precincts because they (Democrats) themselves failed to close the polls at which they were sworn to do it—that, too, when no one had voted after 6 o'clock.

They refuse also to sign their names to the returns officially, and then threw out the votes because they were not signed officially.

This shameful perjury secures the Democrats a Senator as well as a Representative in the Legislature. This sort of conduct has been observed throughout the "black belt." The Legislature thus created by perjury and violence will elect a United States Senator in Congress. Can a Senator thus elected get his seat? If so, our Government is undermined, and the end in sight. It is to be hoped that no Senator will be admitted until elected by a Legislature chosen at a fair election. If Congress will take this ground, and thus frustrate all the perpetrators of outrage and wrong to profit by their crimes, elections in this State will cease to be a farce. Let the same position be assumed in reference to members of the House of Representatives. The Kuklux organization was brought about to prevent the said election, and the whole people of the South, and with this fervor ask the North, so as to get possession of the Government. In Georgia they have succeeded perfectly. It permitted to profit by their conduct, in four years more they will have every Southern State in their grasp. The success of such a power no one will gainsay, when he reflects how the small power now held by the Senate has corrupted grave Senators and leading men once supposed to be actuated by the highest patriotism, and brought them to their knees to lick the very boots of the Southern people whom they have so long denounced and opposed.

Time would fail to give you the wicked devices, the outrages and the frauds practiced in all parts of this State by the infernal Republicans.

WATCHMAN.

ELECTION RETURNS OF LIBERTY COUNTY.

At the election on yesterday the following votes were cast:

	Governor. Dem.	Governor. Rep.	State Senate. Dem.	State Senate. Rep.	Representatives. Dem.	Representatives. Rep.
Court-house Polls	119	907	119	906	112	907
Riceboro Precinct	39	82	39	81	37	77
Hyndman's Pound	31	23	31	23	27	17
Creek Precinct	36	0	36	0	34	0
Total	267	1,012	267	1,010	258	1,001
Majority		745		743		743

If the election returns had been consolidated upon the face of the papers, the above would have been the result, but the managers in their wisdom, thought proper to reject the Court-house returns on the ground that the polls were not formally closed until 6 o'clock P. M., although no tickets were received after 6 o'clock P. M. The Riceboro returns were also rejected, for the reason that tickets were received after three (3) o'clock P. M., and the managers did not sign in their full official capacity.

The reconstructed returns as amended by a bare majority of the managers, read as follows:

For Governor:
Smith, Democrat 913
Walker, Republican ..... None.

For State Senator:
Mattison, Democrat 910
Campbell, Republican 3

For Representative:
Horne, Democrat 909
Golding, Republican 11
Johnson, Republican ..... None.

The protested reconstructed returns, but was thrown overboard.

(Signed,) W. S. NORMAN, Superintendent.

The Political Outlook in Brooklyn—Who Want the Offices.

The political fever that periodically afflicts the country exists this year in a very much modified form in Brooklyn. The local offices to be filled at the coming election are: A Sheriff, two Commissioners of Charities, a Justice of the Sessions, four Justices of the Peace, three members of Congress, nine Assemblymen, Supervisors of the old wards and Aldermen of the seven wards.

The Sheriff's office offers the biggest plum. The Democratic aspirants for this prize are Excise Commissioner John Pyburn, Police Justice John Delmar, Chief of Police Patrick Campbell, Richard P. Cozine, a plumber; Lewis P. Newman, and Thomas H. Farrell. The Republican candidates are Silas E. Dutcher and Lewis Gerhard. For Commissioners of Charities, the following names are prominent; Democrats, Thomas Ferris and Henry Carr; Liberal Republican, Joseph Reeve. For Justice of the Sessions, Justice Verbeck, the present incumbent, and Justice John Dewing, of East New-York, both Democrats, are on the anxious seat. For Judge of the City Court, to fill the place of Judge Thompson, whose term will expire on the 1st of January, 1873, the prominent names as yet mentioned are Judge George C. Reynolds, a Liberal Republican, Charles J. Lowry and Henry D. Birdsall, Democrats. Judge Reynolds will doubtless receive the Democratic nomination. For the judicial offices the Republicans have not as yet put forth any candidates; they are waiting to see "which way the cat jumps." Many aspirants of their leadership in this department of the field. For Justice of the Peace in the First District, Police Capt. Daniel Ferry, Democrat, stands most prominent, unless Justice Delmar should fail in securing the nomination for Sheriff, in which event Justice Delmar will probably take precedence. Ex-Andrew James O'Brien, Democrat, is also spoken of. For the Second District Court, to succeed Justice Buckley, who is now under two indictments for misconduct and corruption in office, the prominent names are Ex-Assemblyman Patrick Keady, at present the incumbent in the Fire Marshal's office, N. B. Morse, David T. Lynch, and a half dozen others. Justice Andrew Walsh is the only name mentioned prominently for Police Justice in this district. For the Sixth District Court, Justice Lynch's name, Democrat, will probably nominate Police Capt. Cassidy.

The Congressional tickets are involved in deep obscurity as yet. In the Second District, which is largely Democratic, John G. Schumaker and E. C. Litchfield are both spoken of as Kelly's successors. Wm. E. Robinson is the standing fadeposition candidate. In the Third District, Gen. Sloeum, W. W. Goodrich and Samuel D. Morris are mentioned, and in the Fourth, Stephen J. Callahan is the loudest claimant for the nomination.

Those are all Democrats. The Republicans keep their counsel until after the primaries, which will take place on the 15th inst.

The Disbursements of the Fire Department—Motion for a Mandamus Against Controller Green.

A motion was argued yesterday, before Judge Barrett, in Supreme Court, Chambers, for a peremptory mandamus to compel Controller Green to pay a requisition of the Commissioners of the Fire Department amounting to $195,000. In stating the case of the Commissioners to the Court, Mr. John E. Burrill said the expenditures of the Department for the current year were fixed by the Board of Estimate and Revision, and the necessary moneys continued to the Controller through requisitions upon the Controller until July last, when the Controller declined to pay a requisition for $100,000, claiming that such moneys must be disbursed through him; that the pay-rolls should be submitted to him for additional, and so to issue the moneys to the amount so adjusted. This, on the part of the Commissioners, was claimed to be in conflict with the terms of the act which gave to the Commissioners the control and disbursement of the appropriations.

Mr. Wheeler H. Peckham, on the part of the Controller, contended that the latter was not bound to pay over the moneys required for the Department to the Commissioners in bulk; that the eighty-fourth section of the charter which provided for the transfer of the powers of the Metropolitan Fire Department to the Fire Department of the City of New-York, referred simply to general powers in relation to the extinguishing of fires, and in no way transferred the power to receive the money in bulk, and disburse the same as called for.

While the argument was still pending, the Court adjourned to this morning.

The Base-Ball Tournament.

The base-ball tournament began yesterday with a match between the Mutuals and Bostons, to witness which about 2,000 persons were in attendance. The game throughout was closely contested. An error of the umpire enabled the Bostons to score two runs instead of one in the eighth inning, and thus tie the game. Neither scored in the ninth or tenth, and an eleventh was begun. The Mutuals scored but one run with two men out, when Birdsall, the Boston catcher, was struck by the ball and so seriously injured that the Mutuals consented to draw the game, the Bostons being entitled to another inning at the bat.

Today the tournament will be continued by a game between the Mutuals and Athletics on the Capitoline. Also, this afternoon, the Atlantics play the Bostons.

Something Radically Wrong in the District-Attorney's Office.

August Artzel, a carpenter, pleaded guilty in General Sessions, yesterday, to a felonious assault, and was sent to State Prison for two years at hard labor. The District-Attorney ascertained that Artzel had no such case before the Court ready for trial. The Recorder also knew of no circumstance that there were for delay in passing sentence, and there could be no reason for trial; he thought there must be something radically wrong in the District-Attorney's office. Adjourned.

THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS VS. THE MARINE COURT.

Richard Storrs vs. Dorsheimer.—In this case, already noticed in the TIMES, and in which a stay had been granted by the Court of Appeals, pending proceedings in the Marine Court pending a hearing in said Court on appeal, a decision has now been rendered reversing the order of Judge Robinson dismissing the appeal from an order of the Marine Court reversing its own decision in favor of the defendant and granting a new trial. Accordingly the appeal now stands heard on the appeal from the order of the Marine Court granting a new trial on the ground of newly-discovered evidence under the act of 1871. The Court, on this question, holds that the evidence in the case of Frederick Schwartzer, a German of Williamsburg, a mole, proscuss was entered on the indictment for having presented a forged money order. It appeared that the crime had been committed through ignorance.

Charles Rosenfeld, charged with perjury in having offered himself as fraudulent bail, will go to trial today.

The McCabe Lunacy Case.

In the case of Rose McCabe, known as Sister Mary Stanislaus, the particulars of which, as developed before Judge Leonard, have already appeared in the TIMES, a new writ of habeas corpus has been issued, which was returnable before Judge Sedgwick, in Superior Court, Chambers, yesterday. The lady whose liberty and sanity are involved in the issue was present in Court, accompanied by her counsel, Mr. John D. Townsend, the Commissioners of Charities being represented by Mr. J. J. Vanderpool, while Mr. John McKeon represented the friends of Miss McCabe, and Mr. Henry Nichol the Bloomingdale Asylum, where the petitioner was first confined.

Mr. Townsend stated the substance of the petition, which set forth that Miss McCabe was detained against her will, was of perfectly sound mind, and was committed to the asylum at the instance of designing persons.

Mr. Vanderpool stated that he supposed the only issue would be as to whether Miss McCabe was of sound mind or not, and on this question he claimed the decision of Judge Leonard would be conclusive up to the time it was rendered.

Neither party dissenting, the Court ordered the case to stand over until a week from Monday next. Mr. Townsend stating that he would then make the application of the lady herself, and of a physician not examined on the previous hearing before Judge Leonard.

Result of the Civil Service Examinations for Promotion.

The result of the examination held on Monday in the Custom-house, for promotion in the Civil Service, was announced yesterday.

The three names standing at the head of the list were, George H. Steele, Edward A. Mann, George Fisher.

The candidates for promotion in the Naval Office, under the civil service regulations, were examined yesterday. Col. Silas W. Burt, and Mr. Jacob Hess, of the Law Examining Board. Four candidates were present, and the following named stood highest in rank: John Grant, Robert J. Wilcox, and Seymour Van Dessen.

The examination of candidates for admission to the Civil Service will commence on Tuesday, in the Custom-house, at 9 o'clock. Twenty-three applications have already been received. Twenty offices to be filled are a $1,500 clerkship, and two inspectorships. There are four candidates for the position of night watchman.

The United States Circuit Court.

In the United States Circuit Court, yesterday, the bail-bond of E. M. Grandin, indicted for sending obscene literature through the mails, was forfeited. In the case of Frederick Schwartzer, a German of Williamsburg, a mole, prosecus was entered on the indictment for having presented a forged money order. It appeared that the crime had been committed through ignorance.

Charles Rosenfeld, charged with perjury in having offered himself as fraudulent bail, will go to trial today.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR DIMENSION GRANITE REQUIRED FOR THE FOUNDATION OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT BUILDING AT ST. LOUIS, MO.

OFFICE OF SUPERVISING ARCHITECT,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 30, 1872.

Proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock M. of the 15th day of October, 1872, for furnishing and delivering at the site of the proposed Government building at St. Louis, Mo., all of the dimension granite required for the construction of said building.

The species of stone from which a selection will be made will be confined to granite, marble and sandstone, and the qualities especially insisted upon will be uniformity in color and texture, durability, and the capacities for working under the chisel or hammer.

A sample block, TWENTY inches thick, showing on each face a different kind of cutting, and on one the natural texture of the stone must be submitted with each proposal.

No stone that has not been tested by actual use as cut stone in buildings for at least five years will be considered, and absolute proof that it has been used for that period must be furnished.

The stone must be either have a good grain and be free from sap, or the blocks must be large enough to allow from which it is procured must be fully opened and capable of furnishing the quality and quantity required within one year.

About 40,000 cubic feet, more or less, will be required, the actual average of the stones cannot now be given, but will approximate forty feet, each square stone containing about 200 cubic feet.

Proposals must be made on the basis of net stone, in order that the contractor may make proper allowance for cutting in the quarries, and on the schedule payment will be made allowing an addition of one inch to each face or arris for dressed beds, and of one-half inch to each cut face of sandstone.

Bidders will state how soon they can commence delivering the stone and the amount per week they can undertake to deliver. They will also state the time required from their quarry.

No bids will be received except from the owners or lessees of the quarries from which the stone is proposed to be furnished, and a certificate from the Recorder of the County in which the quarry is situated that the bidder is the owner or lessee of the quarry must accompany the bid.

All proposals must be made on and in full accordance with the printed forms to be obtained on application to this office, and must be addressed to Thomas Walsh, St. Louis, Mo., and must be accompanied by a penal bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, ($50,000) that the bidder will accept and perform the contract if awarded to him, with two sureties in the penal sum of one hundred thousand dollars, ($100,000) and a valid and binding lien of the quarry to the Government as security for the faithful performance of the contract, and that he will not, upon the failure of the contractor to comply with the terms of the contract, call upon the Government or the Courts to take further action in the matter of the quarry or of the expenses of the contractor in the case of default.

The Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to divide the contract, any bid, or more kinds of stock.

Proposals must be inclosed in a sealed envelope, indorsed "Proposals for St. Louis Mo. Stone," and addressed to the Supervising Architect, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

A. B. MULLETT, Supervising Architect.

PROPOSALS FOR HEAD-STONES FOR NATIONAL MILITARY CEMETERIES.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27, 1872.

Proposals are invited for marking the graves in the National Cemeteries, as required by law, to be addressed to the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C.

Proposals should state the price for each headstone, properly inscribed and set, as the head of the grave, in the several National Military Cemeteries.

Bids may be for the whole work of all the cemeteries, or for that of several cemeteries in a district, or for a single cemetery.

The number required will be, in amount, twenty (20) per cent. of the whole amount of each contract.

All proposals must be in by the 23d day of October, and will be opened on the 23d day of October, 1872, at noon, at the office of the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C., in presence of bidders, and contracts will be awarded to the lowest bidders within ten days of that time, if the terms of the samples and prices can be completed, provided the samples are deemed suitable by the Secretary of War.

The right to reject all bids is distinctly reserved in order to prevent mistakes.

Lists of the cemeteries, with the number of graves in each, together with full information as to conditions required, &c., will be furnished on application, in writing to the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C.

Envelopes containing proposals to be indorsed "Proposals for Head-Stones for National Military Cemeteries," and addressed to the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C.

STORES FOR UNITED STATES ARMY.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23, 1872.

Manufacturers are requested to send to this office printed descriptive cuts and prices-list of such articles as they may deem recommend for use of the Army in garrison and camp.

The rooms in quarters of officers are generally of moderate size, not over 12 feet square. Troops should be of size to cook for eighty (80) men.

Wrought-iron, as less liable to breakage, is preferable to cast-iron for camp-kettles, cooking-stoves, &c.

Pieces should be put on board cars or vessels securely packed for transportation.

Terms of payment will be stated. From these data it is intended to ascertain what articles will be suitable for the purpose, will be least costly in case of duplicate supplies, &c. Address, &c.

M. C. MEIGS,
Quartermaster-General,
Brevet Major-General United States Army.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES,
New-York City.

AUGUSTUS SCHELL wrote to a Democratic inquirer the other day informing him that Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania were safe, and adding, "Rush on the column, and let New-York emulate the example of her sister States." All right, we will "rush on the column," and New-York will emulate the example of her sister States. Is there anything else you want done, Mr. SCHELL?

Mr. GREELEY boasted in one of his recent speeches: "Ohio is with us;" "Indiana will be with us;" "Pennsylvania is ours." The people do not want the Sage as President—could he get an engagement anywhere as a prophet?

At an early hour yesterday morning, the Tribune put a notice outside its office to the effect that the election in Pennsylvania were very encouraging to the "Liberals and Democrats," so far. That same placard was kept on exhibition all day—they had no better news to stick outside. It does not take much to "encourage" the sweet coalition, if they are satisfied with yesterday's work.

"The harvest is ripe for the sickle. A few days more of hard work, and it will be gathered in." Thus said the great Professor, in his master's paper on Sept. 28. Well, Professor, you have gathered in your harvest, and it is one upon which your department of the animal creation usually feeds—thistles. How do you like it?

"With honest voting and honest counting, we shall be able to announce to-morrow the triumph of honest government and upright candidates."—Tribune, Oct. 8.

Exactly what you will have to commence. Please don't make wry faces over the task. The people have now expressed their opinion of the infamous political trick perpetrated at Cincinnati and Baltimore. There is nothing left for GREELEY but to hang up his fiddle.

Mr. FROUDE, the historian, is expected to arrive here this week. We believe that he will be entertained at dinner by our eminent publishing house, Messrs. SCRIBNER & CO., of Broadway, who have been the means of placing most of Mr. FROUDE's books before the American public. Mr. FROUDE will deliver his lectures at Association Hall, and tickets for the course are now ready, and ought to be secured at once by those who desire good seats.

The desperate extremity to which the Democrats were reduced yesterday is indicated by the fact that they posted the following bulletin at Indianapolis:

NEW-YORK, Oct. 8, 1872.

The NEW-YORK TIMES of this morning prepares for the loss of your State, as well as Ohio and Pennsylvania.

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH.

For AUGUSTUS SCHELL.

If Mr. A. SCHELL authorized this statement, he was guilty of a deliberate fraud upon the Democracy of Indiana. Either this is his idea of "Reform," or The TIMES distinctly misled the Republican victories while avoiding saying SO. Mr. SCHELL will wake up to the fact that the people are not to be hoodwinked by the devices which may pass muster in New-York back-rooms.

An Unencumbered Victory.

We have never had a greater triumph to record than that which we announce this morning. In a contest admitted by our opponents to be a final test of strength, we have conquered, and that signally and decisively. We have unquestionably gained all the three States which Mr. GREELEY declared would vote for his supporters. Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have all pronounced for us. Nebraska has also given us 5,000 majority. The people have attested once more their attachment to the Republican Party, and no sensible man can deny that the Presidential contest is virtually over. It cannot be supposed, even by the wildest dreamer, that the decision pronounced yesterday can be reversed in November. A gigantic piece of trickery has been killed outright on one day, and nothing remains for the Democrats but to abandon GREELEY at once, and save what shred of credit they can.

The Democrats will begin to realise today the folly of their bargain with HORACE GREELEY. There can be no doubt—there never has been any doubt—that they would have had a better chance of success, and stood much more favorably before the people, had they nominated a good man from their own party, instead of taking a nurcost from ours. They have forfeited their principles and consistency, and placed themselves under the leadership of one who has for years been their bitterest enemy—and for what? Simply that they might be beaten more ignominiously than ever before. One or two of their journals had the courage and good sense to protest against the shameful alliance with GREELEY, FENTON, & Co. to the last, but the World, after boasting of its entire independence of party ties, slavishly surrendered, after solemnly asserting that surrender to such a fraud would be to the last degree base and dishonorable. We heard a great deal from the World at that time about the beauty and nobleness of "independent journalism," but it soon afforded the most disgraceful instance on record of abject submission to the most immoral and degraded combination known in political annals.

The truth is that those journalists and politicians altogether excluded from their calculations the only invincible power in the country—the power of public opinion. They met together in a room, and fancied they could govern the country. They forgot that the people had to be consulted on the subject. In the State elections which took place yesterday, the conditions were notoriously favorable to the coalition. Many of our Republican friends were dissatisfied with the local candidates, and avowed their intention of voting against them, while supporting GRANT for the Presidency. Hence the Greeleyites were confident of success in at least two States out of three. Mr. GREELEY's wire-pullers here wrote boasting dispatches to all their friends. Their papers fully counted upon Pennsylvania. They have been keeping their hungry followers on empty promises for weeks together, and now, at their very first decisive contact with the people, the imposture is swept aside. It will be observed that we have gained in almost every direction. The Republican strength exhibited is startling, even to those who most fully believed in its existence. We prepared our readers yesterday for moderate majorities in the three chief States which were contested. They have given us majorities which scarcely our most sanguine friends dared to hope for. The people are ahead of the politicians, as usual, and they have disposed of the unprincipled gang which had enrolled under Greeley's flag in their own effectual way. The purification of politics which this immense victory will cause is incalculable. Think of the miserable set in this State who are comfortably put under the sod. FENTON and all his gang, big and little, the Tammany crowd, the schemers who have been the curse of New-York for years—they are all buried beyond hope of resurrection. We shall undoubtedly carry the Empire State in November by the largest majority ever polled for the Republicans—and already the Presidential victory is won.

We rejoice over this brilliant success for many reasons, but for none more than this—that we shall now have an opportunity of talking about measures a little more, and a little less about men. We can now afford to let the Tribune and its companion sheets go on manufacturing slanders, while our attention can be turned to those measures which the public interests demand, and which we are quite sure the next Administration will be prepared to carry out. We should take little pleasure in our success if we did not feel confident that Gen. GRANT will give us a good Administration—that past mistakes will be avoided; that good advice will be heeded; that many reforms will be carried out which

The Forty-Third Congress.

The elections yesterday render it reasonably certain that the next Congress—the Forty-third—will be Republican in the House of Representatives by a majority—close upon two-thirds of the whole House—of two hundred and ninety-two members. Pennsylvania has elected nearly three-fourths Republican members out of her enlarged representation of twenty-nine members. Indiana, judging from present returns for Governor, must send eight, if not nine, Republican members out of thirteen, and Ohio has probably elected fifteen Republican out of twenty members. New-York is good for twenty-two (possibly twenty-four) Republican out of thirty-three members in November, and Iowa and Michigan will send full Republican delegations of nine members each at the same time.

The new apportionment under the census of 1870 makes a House, for the next ten years, of 292, as against 243 in the present House. The new Congress, we believe, will be divided in the proportion of 191 Republican to 101 Opposition members, as follows:

States.	Republican.	States.	Opposition.
New England	21	New-England	1
Middle	47	Middle	27
South-Western	7	South-Western	26
Western	79	Western	15
Pacific	3	Pacific	1
Southern	34	Southern	31
Total	191	Total	101

From results already known, the above calculation is more likely to be exceeded than to fall short when all the Congressional elections are held.

The Mayoralty.

The TIMES has not assumed the right to dictate, or even suggest, to the honest voters of this City the candidate who ought to be nominated as Mayor. We propose to come to the support of the best man who is placed in the field, unfettered by preferences, either expressed or implied. Ten days ago, Mr. WILLIAM B. DUNCAN was selected by the managers of what wishes to be known as "Reformed" Tammany, as the nominee for Mayor. The Herald, World and Tribune came out with a prearranged chorus of admiration for the pre-eminent fitness of Mr. DUNCAN for the honorable position of Chief Magistrate of the City. This little overture was sufficiently ludicrous, and turns out to be all the more so from the fact that it has proved to be the introduction to—nothing. The announcement was confidently made that Mr. DUNCAN had consented to be a candidate. If he did, he has changed his mind. After a calm survey of the field, the eminent banker has come to the conclusion that Tammany cannot elect him, and he has forbidden the further use of his name in connection with the Mayoralty. During the past two or three days, the Tammany Managers have been seeking a respectable citizen to substitute for Mr. DUNCAN, but without success. Mr. EDWARD COOPER, of COOPER, HEWITT & Co., is at present the object of their delicate attentions.

It must be obvious to every citizen who has any reputation to lose that a nomination received at the hands of Tammany is a mark of degradation rather than distinction. It would have cast a slur upon the great and honorable banking-house of DUNCAN, SHERMAN & Co., had one of its members sought to attain civic honors under the soiled banner of Tammany Hall. Mr. DUNCAN has promptly drawn himself "out of that crowd," and has, in so doing, shown a proper regard for a pure reputation. To be patted on the back by the Herald and fawned on by the World, not to mention the prospect of being patronized in the Professor's most offensive style, were doubtless sufficient to disgust him with the whole business. And now the Herald, by way of a parting reminder of its wonderful "influence," advises Mr. DUNCAN to do what he has done without asking its leave. This latter journal seems to think that it has a vested right to nominate candidates for all the City offices, probably in virtue of being the organ of the present Mayor, and of having defended the Ring to the last. Our African contemporary presumes too much on the short memory of the public in puting forward any claim to be listened to by the Reform element in this City. When it talks gravely about the danger of the revival of the power of the old Ring, and about the influences which are at work to drag down the Tammany party "still deeper into the mire," it soars some what above its ordinary level of absurdity and impudence. Fortunately [illegible] How the Herald travelled before this same "old King" in the day of its power:

"Tammany, with the minority votes, and control, as a rule, of [illegible] New-York money conquest everything. The contract of the Tammany Ring and the Erie Ring [illegible] and the Democratic managers have only to put their heads together and make a long, stout shaving of all the great railway and telegraph interests of the country in order to swim the White House."

Then it drags Mr. DUNCAN, the organ of Mayor HALL, among reserves to shine, at all hazards, to HALL's friend and soother, Judge BARNARD. The Fourth Ward is cast for BARNARD at sessions, as also is Mr. BELMONT and other eminent "Reformers." We suppose that the ranks of Cheatham-street and the New-Bowery have good and sufficient reasons for the "indorsement," though why Mr. BELMONT should feel moved to strongly recommend the renomination of the City Judge is not quite so obvious. Perhaps he has concluded that his support would not be thrown away upon a person who might be called upon to preside over the trial of NATHANIEL SANDS, in relation to that little fifteen million transaction in City bonds, out of which SANDS got so respectable a commission. In any case, the Reformers of the City are not likely to submit to the dictation either of the Fourth Ward or of the banking agent of Messrs. ROTHSCHILDS. The Herald will not be able to force Judge BARNARD on the people any more than it could Mr. DUNCAN, and all the desperate and ridiculous efforts which are being made to manufacture newspaper capital for the City Judge will be worse than thrown away. This sort of wire-pulling is, fortunately, in discredit at present, and if there be any position in regard to which every decent citizen must be disgusted with urgent personal solicitation, it is in regard to a seat on the Bench. If anything were needed to prove the special unfitness of any candidate for a judicial nomination, it would be furnished by a resort to just such tricks as GUNNING S. BARROUB is employing to obtain a renomination.

Two Assassins.

Mr. DE WITT CLINTON LITTLEJOHN, who not only discredits his own name, but that of the statesman prefixed to it, by going over to the Democratic Party and becoming its candidate for office, recently made a speech at Oswego, which he interlarded with Tribune slang against Ex-Collector MURPHY, between whom and himself friendly relations had long existed. These relations have undergone no change, except so far as Mr. LITTLEJOHN's tastes, temper and sense of propriety have been affected by his abandonment of the Republican Party. Among other disparaging allusions to Mr. MURPHY, was the charge that he "spells Collector with a K." The only occasion in which Mr. MURPHY ever used his pen in Mr. LITTLEJOHN's presence was when LITTLEJOHN was much in need of $2,000, and was unable to obtain it on a note which he had offered for discount. Mr. GREELEY kindly indorsed the note, and went with Mr. LITTLEJOHN to the Grocers' Bank, procured the discount and handed Mr. LITTLEJOHN the proceeds. This incident, showing that Mr. LITTLEJOHN, in changing his politics, changed also his character, reminds us of another equally characteristic of the hybrid candidate whom Mr. LITTLEJOHN is supporting for President. When Mr. MURPHY had made up his mind to resign the office of Collector, a friend called on Mr. GREELEY to inform him of that intention, and to suggest that it afforded an opportunity of harmonizing the friends of the Administration. That gentleman then asked Mr. GREELEY to indicate some person whose appointment would be satisfactory, to which Mr. GREELEY replied, "We don't want MURPHY to resign. Let him stay where he is. We are after GRANT. We don't want to touch MURPHY."

"Whitewash."

Not long ago, Blackwood published a sardonic sketch in verse, a kind of autobiographical fragment, wherein Judas Iscariot was held up as a much-abused, and, in reality, very nice sort of fellow. The article was a clever satire on the current tendency of the age in favor of "whitewash." About such characters as OLIVER CROMWELL or MARY Queen of Scots, of course there may legitimately be two opinions. But the taste of the whitewashers is best exemplified in other figures than those so closely analyzed by FROUDE and MACAULAY. To prove, for instance, that CHARLES IX., who blazed away out of his window at the unhappy Huguenots on the day of St. Bartholomew, was a benevolent and sweet-minded gentleman; that BENEDICT ARNOLD was a lofty patriot; that CHATTERTON was no literary forger; that Justice JEFFRIES was a genial humorist, and BURKE, the original and champion garotter, a tender metaphysician; that NERO fiddled a requiem over burning Rome, and not a jig; that SWIFT was a pure man and BURNS a sober one; that DANIEL WEBSTER had no small vices, and GEORGE IV. no great ones; such are fair samples of the new-fangled taste for paradox which affects every-day life as well as literature, and bids fair to endow the rising generation with remarkably muddy notions of right and wrong.

We have it by late advices that even Juggernauth, or—we beg his pardon, "Jagannatha, the Lord of the World"—is to be "rehabilitated." It appears that we have been grossly deceived all this time in regard to his true character and attributes. To the unenlightened of our Western world, he has appeared as a blood-stained and frightful tyrant, under whose wheels innocent fanatics were periodically crushed to death, whose revenues were wrung from terror-stricken superstition, and whose great temple at Poonee was a very shambles of butchery, a horribly grotesque chaos of gore and barbaric splendor. We are now given to understand that the god has been sadly maligned. In point of fact, he is an affable and very well-meaning personage. The main object of his existence is to diffuse happiness, and he carries out this object in the most engaging manner. True, he has a car fifty feet high, with sixty wheels, and when he goes out for an airing in it hundred along by two or three thousand other worshipers, people unluckily sometimes get in his way, and get mashed into jelly for their pains. But this certainly is no fault of the amiable Jagannatha or his priests, who would much rather the wheels of life should run smoothly, and only desire that they should be kept well greased by the gold of the faithful. The only suspicious part of the business is that this gold, in conformity with superstitious custom, is invariably poured forth in much larger streams when the bones of a victim are crunched under the car, and the howls of agony always stimulate the profuse contribute to the treasure-loving deity.

For all this, we are to understand that Juggernauth is a very decent god, as gods go, and to stop abusing our grandmother by abusing him. We are to put away our stale old traditions, and acknowledge that Mumbo Jumbo is an equal of light, and that the Prince of Darkness is a gentleman. Certainly it cannot be denied that these new lights from the Orient have their prototypes among ourselves. They are thrown, too, not on the remote past alone, but on objects of "contemporaneous interest." Take, for instance, the members of the thrice-infamous Tammany Ring. A parcel of scoundrels, without one spark of common honesty or common feeling, have been detected and exposed, after carrying on for years a stupendous system of theft and perjury. The worst men in the Penitentiary are not too good company for them; and if there could be in the present sphere a worse place than the Penitentiary, to that they ought summarily and long ago to have gone. And yet these reprobates, with the aid of the cash they have stolen, can find people to try to "whitewash" them, to blanch over their enormous and blackened names, and to squeak pitifully in our ears that the fellows are "not so bad after all." From newspapers wishing to be thought respectable, can speak of the thieves as if they were average honest men, and talk of their "careers," and their "future," and their "influence," as if they were any better than convicted felons, or had any right to be better dealt with. And a man, pretending to love honesty, and aspiring to be President of the United States, can strike hands in alliance with them, and for a contemptibly selfish and absolutely unjustifiable end, make himself a sharer forever in their infamy.

There is nothing one whit less absurd in all this than in the parody about Judas Iscariot, or in the babble about Juggernauth. The whole business is no more, no less, than simply the apotheosis of scoundrelism, the euthanasia of thieving and lying. We take leave to dissent from the whole scheme of specious paradox, to call a spade a spade still, and to believe that who touches pitch will be defiled. "Whitewash" may be a very good dog, but Plain Truth—as the Tribune would print it—is a better. The immutable distinctions between right and wrong, between upright men and rogues, are not to be obliterated, or plastered over, even at the behest of political expediency; and we are firmly convinced that the people will punish, with the utmost severity in the end, the participants in such ignominious bargains, the would-be profiters by a partnership of shame.

There has been another attack on King Amadeo. It seems to be the pleasing habit of the Spanish Republican to display his furia in free government by shooting at his King. This is, of course, a convincing argument that Republicanism is the only good form of government, and, moreover, establishes the eminent fitness of the Spanish Republican to assume the reins of power. It must be saddening to the radical Spaniard to find that this obstinate King refuses either to be killed or frightened. Bullets, knives or stones fail to harm him, and no matter how often he is attacked, he declines to surround himself with guards and thus give his enemies the opportunity to compare him with sanguinary tyrants who dreaded the just vengeance of the people. The truth is, the Spanish rioter, whether he calls himself a Republican or a Carlist, cannot comprehend the cool bravery of the Savoyard Prince. Amadeo comes of a race that is brave, honorable and just, and it is not strange that the average Spanish assassin regards him as hopelessly foreign in Spanish habits and customs.

The colored naval cadet, recently appointed to the Academy at Annapolis, has already joined his comrades, and on Monday sat at the dinner-table with the white midshipmen. The fact that he was not insulted has been thought worthy of especial comment by a part of the Press. There was, however, no reason to suppose that the mere fact of his dark skin would subject him to annoyance from his fellow-midshipmen. The negro sailor is often found both in our naval and merchant service, and he is never treated with injustice or contempt on account of his color. The prejudice of color vanishes when black men and white men confront together the perils of the sea, and the white man who, were he a day laborer on shore, would very probably decline to work with a black man, forgets the latter's color when, at sea, [illegible] The colored naval cadet is much more likely to find his situation a pleasant one, than would have been the case had he gone to West Point instead of Annapolis.

The day before the Pennsylvania election, in order to keep up the courage of Democratic men and brethren, the Tribune published in double-leaded type the news of a grand Greeley victory in Meriden, Conn. The occasion was the struggle over the election of a Selectman in that village. The New-England Selectman is not generally known to fame outside of his own village, neither has his success at the polls been hitherto considered to have any very close connection with national politics. Nevertheless, the Tribune puts it as gross the villages of Meriden in the matter of Selectmen, as will go the Union in the coming November elections. Meriden, aforesaid, by the Tribune's own showing, polled 926 votes for a Republican Selectman, and 443 for his Liberal-Democratic opponent, upon which the Tribune raises a jubilant cry over the defeat of the corrupt party which would, if successful, have placed Meriden under the grinding yoke of a Republican Selectman! If the Tribune takes pleasure in victories of this sort, no Republican will make any objection, but it would be interesting to know what it would have said had the Liberal Selectman received more votes than his opponent.

The Government officials in England are evidently determined that the disease among cattle shall not be allowed to spread, through any lack of severity on their part. Quite recently a cattle dealer, named Moss, was fined twenty pounds for having failed to report the existence of foot and mouth disease in his yards. There is no doubt Moss was endeavoring to keep the matter silent until he could dispose of the affected animals, but the inspectors were too sharp for him, and the result is that his loss is a great deal heavier than it would have been if his desire for gain had not outweighed his interest in the public health. The "stamping" out process is still being continued with praiseworthy industry, although the measure of success has probably not yet been adequate to the amount and character of the effort used.

AMUSEMENTS.

Musical.

PATTI-MARIO CONCERTS.

The last of the Patti-Mario concerts to be given by Mr. Strakosch's artists previous to their departure for the West, occurred at Steinway Hall, last evening. The audience assembled was both numerous and enthusiastic; their gratification at the performance may be inferred by a mention of the fact that almost every piece was redemanded. Miss Patti sang Eckert's "Echo Song," "the bolero from "I Vespri," a Spanish canzonet, and the "Laughing Song," and was heartily applauded. Signor Mario, who was in excellent voice, concentrated, with two duets, executed with Miss Cary, "Raggio d'Amor," and "L'Amoureux," in the recital of which pieces the sentiment and the skill in phrasing of the artist were as discernible as of yore. Miss Cary interpreted "Nobil Signor," from "Gli Ugonotti," and, in acknowledgment of the consequent encore, an English ballad, which she rendered with much feeling. M. Saurez's most effective performance was that of an arrangement for violin—and for a flute instrument that he possesses—of themes from Rossini's "Otello." Miss Carreño was at her best in the delivery of Gottschalk's "Polonia," which belongs to an order of music her temperament fits her to play. Signor Ronconi was as acceptable as ever in "Un Dottor della mia Sorte." Signor Marzo was the accompanist.

ITALIAN OPERA.

"Faust" will be sung at the Academy of Music this evening. Mme. Lucca, Señorita Sass, Signori Vizzani and Sparapani, and M. Jamet are to take part in the representation.

RUBINSTEIN CONCERTS.

The Rubinstein concert at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, last evening, was enjoyed by an overflowing audience. This afternoon, the last Rubinstein matinée may be attended at Steinway Hall. Mr. Grau's artists appear in Newark to-morrow night, and on Friday they will be heard in a final entertainment in this City.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION.

An Exciting Debate on the Judiciary Nominations Last Night.

The Bar Association held its regular monthly meeting last evening at the head-quarters, No. 20 West Twenty-seventh-street, Mr. Henry Nicol in the chair. After the admission of new members and other routine business, Judge Emott, for the Library Committee, made verbal report thanking Mr. Evarts, the President, Mr. J. O. Sargent and Mr. E. M. Willett, a retired member of the Bar, for very valuable additions to the library, which was now nearly completed, except with regard to text-books. Gen. Barlow then called for a report from the Special Committee on Judiciary nominations. Mr. F. F. Marbury, Chairman of the Special Committee, after reading the resolution under which that Committee was formed, said that a conference had been held with a subcommittee from Tammany Hall, and they had united in preferring the following out of the names presented by the latter body: For Superior Court, W. H. Peckham, C. A. Hand, A. R. Lawrence or W. H. Leonard. For Superior Court, J. C. Spencer. For City Judge, J. Sutherland.

The Committee, however, both understood that the selection was not binding on the Bar Association, nor did it preclude their right to express preference for the nominees that might be presented by other committees.

A motion having been made to accept the report, Gen. Barlow objected to two of the names, whereupon an active debate ensued, in which Messrs. Price, Henry L. Clinton, and Gen. Barlow took part; after which Mr. Clinton moved to lay the report on the table, but withdrew the motion temporarily, to allow Judges Sedgwick and Van Cott to speak. Judge Sedgwick said he understood that the Bar Association Committee had suggested names to the Tammany Hall Committee, which assertion was emphatically denied by Judge Van Cott in a lengthy speech defending the action of the former Committee, the members of which had merely followed the instructions embraced in the resolution empowering them to act. A motion having been made to discharge the Committee, Judge Davies moved that the report be referred back to them, and as they continued to act and confer with the other Convention Committees, Mr. Clinton thereupon withdrew his motion and seconded that of Judge Davies, which was carried unanimously. A committee of five was next appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Edward De Witt, formerly a member of the Association, after which the Association adjourned for two weeks.

Questions for a Candidate.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

I notice that Mr. Algernon S. Sullivan has been put forward by certain politicians as a candidate for the position of Justice of the Supreme Court. I desire, in common with all good citizens, that reputable men should be placed on the Bench, men who will protect the lives and property of the citizens of the State.

Now there is this point in regard to Mr. Sullivan. One Albert Cardoso, when formerly a Justice of the Supreme Court, did a considerable business in discharging criminals from Blackwell's Island. There was, while this discharge business was going on, a District-Attorney's office, the province of the District-Attorney's office being to protect the interests of the people, and Mr. Sullivan was Assistant District-Attorney. One William F. Howe always succeeded in getting these criminals discharged, and Mr. Sullivan, as he testified before the Judiciary Committee of the Assembly, attended to this discharge business.

Will Mr. Sullivan, who was one of the parties concerned in letting loose on society condemned criminals, be a suitable person to protect New-York City from those crimi-

MINOR TOPICS.

Sergt. JOHN BATES, who has undertaken the heroic task of carrying the American flag from Scotland to the "Mayor's Hall" in London, will today make a preliminary exhibition of himself by walking down Broadway, of which fact our readers are hereby notified without expense to Mr. BATES. It is a pity that so great a man, on the eve of so great an undertaking, should content himself with merely walking down Broadway like an ordinary being. He might at least have ridden on a velocipede, or hired a band of music to precede him. It is, moreover, lamentable that he proposes to walk in a like prosaic and commonplace way during his flag-bearing expedition abroad. Why did he not undertake to walk from Scotland to London on his hands, with the Stars and Stripes waving gracefully from an elevated boot; or, at all events, vary the monotony of the thing by somersaults at the end of every quarter of a mile. If he really means to do honor to the flag he should devise some better plan than merely carrying it on a flag-staff. ANY man properly stimulated by the hope of greenbacks, could do that without any severe strain on his intellect.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Letters to the Republican National Committee—The situation in Arkansas, Minnesota, California, Missouri, Rhode Island, Florida, Louisiana and Illinois.

Hon. Wm. E. Chandler, Secretary of the Republican National Committee, Fifth-Avenue Hotel, has recently received advices from various parts of the Union, which give a most encouraging view of the onward march of the Republican Party. No doubt seems to exist in the minds of those correspondents that reasonable Republican activity will carry their respective States, and they give assurances that the necessary activity is not lacking. Answers are extracts from letters from Arkansas, Minnesota, California, Missouri, Rhode Island, Florida, Louisiana and Illinois, all of which show a satisfactory condition of affairs.

ARKANSAS.

A letter from Little Rock, Ark., says:

"The colored vote in the State is solid for Grant and the Republican Party. Every county and fraud have been met by the Greeley men in the State to wear, the colored people in the interests of the Republican party, and their efforts have proved futile. Those who look with suspicion upon any movement which threatens the destruction of the Republican Party, may have been caught by conference that it is the cause for the Democratic Party to support for Republican success. The Greeley men have freely shown their disposition to control the whole Democratic Party, which is as bad as in 1868. . . . By a united, determined effort the State can be carried for Grant in November. From all sides I hear of similar being formed, which promises the State for us."

MINNESOTA.

W. L. W. writes from St. Paul, Minn.:

"After the Cincinnati Convention there were many Republicans here and in the State, who was and were in favor of Greeley, but of late the number is very small, and I can hardly find one. The enthusiasm among the Republicans is wonderful, and our meetings are largely attended; while the meetings of the opposition are very small and very dull. . . . Many politicians predicted an overwhelming wave, but as yet the wave has not come. Our State is sure, without a doubt, for Grant and Wilson."

CALIFORNIA.

W. S. M., San Francisco, writes:

"There is no doubt whatever of this State. It is now only a question of majority. Grant will receive that given for Gov. Booth, to wit, over 8,000, and we confidently expect to largely increase it. You can safely put California in your list of certain States."

MISSOURI.

R. A. S. writes from Austin, Cass County:

"Politics are pretty lively here. We are a unit here for Grant and Wilson. There are a few many Democrats here that are undecided. They don't like to vote for Grant, and cannot endorse Greeley. But the greater part of them will unite and vote for Greeley; yet I consider Missouri has a very fair show for a majority for the Republicans in November. We intend to make things lively to succeed."

ILLINOIS.

E. T. S., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"Never before, at so early a period in a campaign, have the indications been so satisfactory as they are at present. Reports from all sections of the State are encouraging beyond our expectations. Gov. Oglesby and Gen. Logan have canvassed in many counties, and have in every instance been welcomed by larger and more enthusiastic audiences than ever before. Particularly is this true in Southern Illinois. The largest Liberal defection has been in Chicago, and a few of the larger cities, but it is daily losing ground. The Liberals in the rural districts are but few in number, and comparatively little influence. The State may be safely counted for Grant by from 15,000 to 20,000."

RHODE ISLAND.

S. H. P. writes from Providence:

"Datum from Greeley's visit to this State, and the final summing up of their defeat in North Carolina, the cause of the opposition has experienced here a steady and certain decline. Reports from all parts of this State are favorable, and indicate that Rhode Island will go in November for Grant and Wilson by 5,000 majority."

FLORIDA.

E. M. C., Chairman of the Florida Republican State Committee, writes from Tallahassee:

"Our party is in excellent condition, and we are sanguine of victory in November. The campaign is being vigorously and systematically prosecuted, and in this State thoroughly conservative Grant and Wilson Clubs are organized in every county, and a series of large and enthusiastic meetings are being held in the more populous eastern and middle counties. The Liberal Republican party has virtually collapsed, and a majority of the Democrats will vote for the Republican and the Democratic Parties. Greeley does not take well with the Democrats, and the Democratic candidates on the stump almost entirely ignore the Presidential question, confining themselves to State issues."

LOUISIANA.

J. E. L. writes from New-Orleans:

"The Liberals and Democrats do not unite here with the Republican majority. They Democrats give up the State as lost. Warmoth is dissatisfied that he has not received more consideration at the hands of the Democrats, and it is said by some has threatened to bring out his paper in favor of Grant if he is not listened to. On the other hand the Republicans are united and confident, and I am quite sure that we shall carry the State by a handsome majority for Grant. Our State ticket finds greater favor every day, and our canvas has wakened up in good earnest."

The Tammany Judiciary and County Conventions—Meeting of Committees—Committees.

Yesterday morning the Committee of Twenty-one of the Tammany County Convention met at the Fourteenth-street Wigwam, A. S. Hewitt in the chair, and appointed a sub-committee to confer with all the organizations willing to co-operate with them in securing suitable nominations for Mayor, Coroner and Aldermen. The following were the Committee: A. S. Hewitt, John Fox, M. T. Brennan, T. A. Ledwith, Edward Donnelly, John Kelly and Adenatus Schell. A new name was mentioned for Mayor at the meeting, that of Howard Potter, son of Bishop Potter, of Pennsylvania. After adjournment the Subcommittee met and resolved to invite the Committees of other organizations to meet them this morning at 11 o'clock, when the following organizations will, it is said, be represented: Liberal Republicans, National Democracy, Committee of Seventy and the Brennan Reform.

The Subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee of the Liberal Republicans and Tammany Hall also met yesterday morning, and, without coming to any decision as to the candidates, adjourned until evening, when the full Committees were to confer and the names to be presented determined upon. At the Subcommittees' meeting the Liberal Republicans were represented by I. Sohs Ritterband, Rufus Andrews and John A. Foster. Contrary to general expectation, nothing was decided upon at the evening session. From the Bar Association a communication was read setting forth that any of the following would be acceptable to them as candidates: For Supreme Court Judge, Peckham, Leonard, Lawrence for C. A. Hand; for Judge of the Superior Court, James C. Spencer, or Fithian; Sutherland for City Judge; and for District-Attorney, Peckham or Lawrence. During the discussion which followed the reading of this communication the Liberal Republicans are said to have promised to support A. S. Sullivan for the Supreme Court, if Tammany would agree to the nomination of Judge Fithian for the Superior Court. The Committee will probably report without making any positive recommendation to the Conventions which meet today, and the impression last evening seemed to be that the Conventions themselves would adjourn without making any nominations, the availability of Jerome Buck or Bedford as City Judge is said to have been discussed.

An Ex-Rebel Soldier's Letter.

Hon. Joseph G. Baum, who was Lieutenant-Colonel of the Eighth Louisiana Volunteers, and has been long a prominent Democratic politician in the Crescent City, says in a private letter to a relative in California: "The Fourth District re-elected in the name of Grant, and why? Because he is a friend to the South. We remember him as the magnanimous soldier who, in victory forbid pomp; who ordered that our soldiers should not be humiliated; shared with them his rations; ordered that they should retain their side-arms which they had so dearly won; that they should take with them their horses that they might be enabled to till their barren fields. These things are not to be forgotten by the Confederate soldiers. Untold numbers who were the 'gray' and were so lately enfranchised through his magnanimity, will not forget it at the ballot-box. The Democratic Party, in placing Horace Greeley at the arch enemy of the South as its standard-bearer

RECEIVING THE NEWS.

Scenes at the Various Political Head-Quarters.

How the News was Received in this City and Elsewhere.

How the Returns Were Received by Vast Gatherings of Citizens—Intense Excitement.

THE TIMES' FIGURES.

Scenes Around the Fifth-Avenue Hotel—Excitement Over the Returns—Immense Crowds of People.

No person who has not actually witnessed the scene can form the slightest estimate of the immense enthusiasm which prevailed at the Republican Head-quarters last evening. The Fifth-avenue Hotel and its surroundings was literally alive with earnest and enthusiastic spectators, anxious to hear the returns from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The eyes of every one were directed toward the stereoscopic bulletin of the TIMES at the junction of Broadway, Fifth-avenue, and Twenty-third-street. As early as 7 o'clock crowds gathered around, attracted by the bulletin which said: "Election reports will be given as rapidly as received."

When the first dispatch, announcing that Pittsburg had given a majority of 1,200 for Hartranft, was submitted to public gaze, there was an enthusiastic cheer given. After this the magic transparency exhibited a cartoon of the would-be future President, Mr. Greeley. The Philosopher of Chappaqua had a trumpet to his mouth, as though anxious to sound his own defeat in advance. The fact that Pittsburg at such an early stage of the evening was announced as having given 1,200 majority out of a vote of 8,000 gave unlimited satisfaction. At 8¼ o'clock Philadelphia was announced as having given from 12,000 to 15,000 majority for Hartranft. Every one of the interested spectators applauded loudly this announcement. An enthusiastic female in the crowd, seeing an advertisement of a prominent dentist appear on the bulletin immediately after the above announcement observed that it was about time Horace Greeley should have his "eye-teeth" drawn. The same female, dangling a baby in her arms, said she was about to present him for adoption to the farmer of Chappaqua as one of his posthumous constituents.

In the Fifth-avenue Hotel two telegraph operators were kept incessantly at work, and numbers of people hung all the evening around the office of the telegraphers anxious to hear the returns on their immediate arrival. It was almost impossible to procure passage-way into the hotel in consequence of the exceedingly large and enthusiastic crowd. In the early part of the evening a respectful silence was observed on all sides, but as time advanced the enthusiasm of the people knew no bounds, and bets of an extravagant character were freely volunteered by the enthusiastic and dignified admirers of Republicanism. Several parties have been heard to offer at even a thousand to one that Pennsylvania would not give Greeley a majority of 25,000. Some even offered enormous bets to the effect that Philadelphia would of itself alone give at least 30,000 majority. Indeed, the events of the evening justified this prediction, for by 10 o'clock the telegraph announced Philadelphia alone as having given 30,000 majority. By 11 o'clock it was generally conceded at Republican Head-quarters to be 25,000 majority in Philadelphia alone. In this connection it may be remarked that the news received at 9 o'clock at Republican Head-quarters was accepted with doubt. In other words, the effect that John Morrissey, who early in the day, was willing to bet quite a stake on the success of the Greeley party in the Keystone State, relented of his rash mania as 9 o'clock approached, and conceded in his own mind that the belief that Pennsylvania would be carried by the Grant Republican Party by a majority of at least 10,000. Never did the honorable pugilist make use of a plainer and simple truism in his life.

Some very good jokes were indulged in at the expense of Chappaqua. One facetious gentleman, whose observation was enthusiastically cheered by his associates, recommended that the Philosopher use some toothpaste to keep his decaying gums in order. The enterprise of the TIMES in fitting up a stereoscopic bulletin for the information of the public, was the source of great admiration. The TIMES reporter met Judge Garvin in the crowd, and asked him what he thought of the plan by which the news was given to the up-town people. "The enterprise is all right enough," said he, "but there is anything but pleasant." At this moment the announcement of Hartranft's success in Pennsylvania appeared, followed by others from Ohio, all of which were received with loud cheers. "What do you think of that, Judge?" asked a bystander who had just recognized him. "Oh, don't bother me," was his petulant reply, as he walked with a couple of friends into the hotel. The announcement of Foster being elected to Congress elicited rounds of applause. The occurrence with which the people watched the election returns from each Senate district by their anxiety for news testified as every additional success was announced, the rapid departure of some messenger betrayed the fact that others were waiting elsewhere for the intelligence.

We intend to give full returns by this stereoscopic process in November, in order that our friends may have the earliest news from the several States.

Excitement Around the Newspaper Offices.

From 8 P. M. until a very late hour last night, the excitement in the vicinity of the newspaper offices in Printing House Square was intense. In front of the Herald office several hundred people were assembled, who received the bulletins announcing the Republican majorities with mingled cheers and groans. Toward 10 o'clock, however, when the more decisive returns were announced, the cheering became unanimous, and three rousing cheers were given for Gen. Grant. The World office failed to present no attraction to the public, a very few people only being assembled in the publishing office. No news was to be had there, the only dispatch published by the World being a supposed Democratic gain in one ward of the City of Pittsburg. The Tribune building presented a melancholy appearance, people did not even seem to linger round the spot. A foley few were gathered in the publishing office occupied in footing a bet—who wanted to bet on Buckalew's majority. Gen who had no money to put up. Round the Sun office much excitement was visible. The bulletins announcing the Republican gains were received with evident clamor, and hearty Democratic swearing and blasphemy was indulged in. A Sixth Ward politician reading the bulletin conceding 10,000 majority to Harrisburg, made a long string of oaths, ending: "I found out from the returns which these democrat niggers what don't know nothing." The Times Building was besieged by an enthusiastic crowd of citizens, who roared successive hoarse as their excitement increased. As the evening came in the excitement increased, and when the bulletin appeared announcing Harrisburg's majority 20,000, a stentorian voice was heard above the crowd to cry, "Now, then, three cheers for Grant and Wilson." Three times three, with "tigers" thrown in, were given, when another voice roared out, "Just then, young man, so was I!" The crowds about the TIMES Office continued until a late hour, the excitement and enthusiasm increasing rather than falling off.

The following dispatches were the best news the Tribune could display upon its bulletins:

"PHILADELPHIA, 8 o'clock.—The Hartranft managers claim 10,000 majority in the city. The Liberals can stand that and still win."

"The first town heard from in Indiana gives a Liberal majority of 41 in a total vote of 314."

"Hamilton County gives 5,000 Liberal majority, a gain of 1,400 on last year."

After the announcement of this cheerful intelligence the calcium light was dispensed with.

At 1¼ o'clock this morning, when the glorious result of the elections had become fully known, the crowds still lingered round the newspaper offices, occasionally sending cheer on the great triumph of Republican principles, as they dispersed there were repeated cheers for Grant and Wilson, coupled with the names of the States that proved true to the cause, and in mock enthusiasm the air "Carry the news to Horace Tray sung by many voices. The complete stillness which reigned round the office of Greeley's organ was the subject of merry comment in which the "Professor" and his master were not forgotten. The last words heard everywhere were Grant and Wilson, and these words were for their final success which all regarded as inevitable.

At the Clubs.

The Manhattan, New-York and Union League Clubs were filled with members in the evening, and though quiet, there was evidence of an intense interest in the event of the day. Gentlemen in conversation at the Union League Club deprecated great exhibitions in the streets, and pity, if the success that New-York State would now give a Republican majority.

At the Democratic National Committee's Rooms.

The rooms of the Democratic National Committee, Belmont House, were crowded with Democrats, waited for returns which did not come. Augustus Schell and John Morrissey were present, apparently not much pleased with the prospective reverse of their party. The latter having contracted on Pennsylvania. In order to get some sort of excitement, it was quietly proposed by one present to manufacture a bogus dispatch. This was not assented to, and the project was abandoned.

At the Liberal Republican National Committee's Rooms.

A greater crowd were in waiting at these head-quarters than at the Democratic rooms. Ethan Allen, Chairman of the Committee, sat on a table during the entire evening, and the crowd pressed around him with the hope of getting some news of a cheering character. He had none to impart, however, and feared suggested that the telegraph line to that head-quarters had broken down. Others left, saying, in disgust, that the place looked like a grave-yard, others "that the jig was up," and similar expressions. Ben. Mudgett, George N. Sanders, Cassius M. Clay, Horace Maynard, and others equally notorious, were present, wearing woeful expressions.

Liberal Republican Central Committee.

It was announced that returns would be received by the Liberal Central Committee, but last evening not more than a dozen persons were present at the Committee's head quarters, No. 814 Broadway, and they had no good news to tell to their visitors.

At Tammany Hall.

A crowd of several hundred persons gathered early in the evening in Tammany Hall, where Col. Seaver and Charles O. Aleshire made rambling speeches, which appeared to have a most disheartening effect upon everybody, and the room was soon deserted. The Chairman, Albert T. Accles, in front of special dispatches on the bulletin of the TIMES, kept off the gloom from the evening extras, but even that failed to rouse the spirits of the audience.

Pool Selling on the Election.

During the forenoon of yesterday there were no pools sold at either Johnson's or at No. 1,162 Broadway, but in the evening a large crowd gathered at both places. Before 5 o'clock P. M. 100 to 40 was sold on Hartranft having 5,000 majority; 50 to 25 on 7,000, and 50 to 25 on 9,000. At 10 o'clock pools sold at 50 to 25 on 10,000; 50 to 40 on 12,000; 50 to 45 and 100 to 80 on the same majority, after which sales ceased and attention was turned to Indiana, with 100 to 60 and 100 to 55 against Hendricks. At 9 o'clock pools sold even, 50 to 40, and 100 to 85 for 7,000 majority for the Republican ticket, and at 10 o'clock sold at 50 to 40 and 50 to 35 for a Republican majority of 10,000.

At No. 1,162 Broadway Underwood & McGowan entertained the following:

PENNSYLVANIA.

THE NEWS IN THE COUNTRY.

Enthusiasm in Hudson—The Republicans Lighting Bonfires and Firing Cannons—Scrubends Have the Headache.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

HUDSON, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The enthusiastic Republicans of Hudson are alive with excitement over the news from Pennsylvania. Bonfires are blazing in the streets, Cannon firing, and wild cheers from all sides show how the news is received.

The coalitionists are now holding a meeting in the City Hall, and their ears are ringing to the victorious hurrahs of the friends of Grant and Wilson.

The Grant and Wilson Clubs with torches and transparencies are forming for an impromptu street parade.

The News at the National Capital—Great Excitement and Rejoicing.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—From early in the evening until this hour, (midnight,) the Washington office of the TIMES has been crowded with people anxious to hear from Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. The returns from the latter State auguring an immense Republican victory were received with the utmost enthusiasm, which was, if possible, increased as soon as it become certain that the State had gone overwhelmingly for the Republican ticket. At the Executive Mansion Secretaries Fish, Boutwell, Belknap, Creswell, Judge Drake, of the Court of Claims, Gov. Cooke, Alexander R. Shepherd and others received the returns as they were received by Gen. Porter. The President was indisposed and was not in the Executive offices proper. Dispatches were received from prominent politicians in the several States where the elections took place.

Anxiety in England to Know the Result.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The result of the State elections in America today are awaited with great anxiety by the London journals. They all recognize that a decisive result on either side today will go far toward deciding the Presidential election in November.

CONNECTICUT.

The Nutmeg State True—The Vote Unchanged from the Last Election.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 8.—Returns from 120 towns show that the Republicans have carried fifty-eight, the Democrats thirty-eight, and twenty-four have elected mixed tickets, the Republicans having a majority of the officers. The Republicans have carried eight towns which were Democratic or mixed last year, and the Democrats have carried eight towns which were Republican or mixed last year. The returns from all parts of the State indicate no material change in the vote from a year ago. There is no comfort for Greeleyism in the Nutmeg State. The indications are that both New-Haven and Hartford will give good majorities for Grant in November.

NEW-JERSEY.

Charter Election in Newark—Republican Victory for Mayor and Council.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 8.—Newark gives 2,200 Republican majority on city ticket, and elects thirteen Republican Aldermen and three Democrats.

THE STOLEN STATE.

Any Majority the Democrats Please in Georgia.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 8.—The Morning News has received official returns from 108 counties, giving Smith a majority of 30,871. There are thirty two counties to hear from, which will doubtless swell the majority to 60,000.

District of Columbia Election.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The election in the District of Columbia today was attended with but few disturbances, which the Police promptly suppressed. Gen. N. G. Chipman, Republican, and the present Delegate in Congress, was re-elected by 5,000 majority. The Republicans also elected nineteen out of the twenty-two delegates to the Legislative Assembly.

Miscellaneous News.

The Republicans of the Fifth District of Tennessee have nominated Capt. Richard S. Turhill for Elector.....The Greeleyites of the Sixteenth District of this State have nominated Adin Thayer for Congress.....Capt. Wm. Howe is an independent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth District of Virginia. Ex-Gov. Fayette McMullin has at length concluded not to run in that district.

EXIT GREELEY.

will show a small Democratic gain, but throughout the remainder of the State the Republican gains are almost uniform.

Ironton, in Southern Ohio, gives 140 Republican vote over 1871, insuring the election of Bundy, Republican, for Congress by an overwhelming majority.

Huron County gives 1,500 less majority on the State ticket, a gain of 561 over last year. Foster's majority for Congress in the same county is 1,550. He holds his own well, and is probably elected.

One hundred and sixty-eight towns and cities show 3,179 net Republican gain over 1871. Fifteen towns in Trumbull County show 267 Republican gain, and the gains over all the Western Reserve, where Soroshead Republicanism boasted loud and long of its great strength, are uniform and decided.

Greeleyism is stamped out in that quarter.

The Cincinnati Congressional Districts.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—The Democrats claim Banning's election over Hayes for Congress in the Second District, by 600 to 1,200 majority; and Scrivers, Democrat, over Engleson in the First District, by from 1,000 to 2,000 majority.

INDIANA.

The Democratic Game of Fraud, Intimidation and Violence in Full Play.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 8—8 P. M.—In New-Albany, the Democrats are driving the negroes from the polls, and putting them in jail. In Green Castle, the Democrats have full control of the boxes, and have excluded seventy-five legal Republican votes. This was expected. In this city, the election is progressing quietly. A very heavy vote is being polled, and the Republicans are gaining. The day is clear and warm.

Republican Gains Reported Everywhere—Beginning of the End.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8—8 P. M.—Two wards in Evansville give 121 majority for Browne, a Republican gain of 11.

In the town of Winchester, Randolph County, Browne has 400 majority, a Republican gain of 134.

Indianapolis and Marion County give about 1,500 Republican majority, being a Republican gain of about 400. Republican gains are reported in Madison, Evansville and other places. Figures have not yet commenced coming.

Further Returns by Townships—Large Republican Gains in the Majority.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8.—South Bent, St. Joe County, Browne, 200 majority; Republican gain, 122. Concord, Elkhart County, Browne, 171 majority; Republican gain, 120. Plainfield, (Hendricks County,) Browne, 480 majority; Republican gain. Centre, Lake County, Browne, 220 majority; Republican gain, 62. Davis Steake County, (Hendricks County,) Hendricks, a majority; Republican gain, 12; Union, Montgomery County, Browne, 150 majority; Republican gain, 107. Pleasant, Porter County, Hendricks, 14 majority; Republican loss, 15. Jordan, Jasper County, Browne, 13 majority; Republican loss, 1. Wayne Township, Wayne County, Browne, 586 majority; Republican loss, 139. Lincoln, St. Joseph County, Browne, 86 majority; Republican loss, 12.

Niblack, Democrat, Defeated for Congress.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 8.—Browne has 500 majority in Vanderburg County.

Heilman, Republican, has 1,200 majority, which shows him elected over Niblack, Democrat.

Greene Township gives Browne 44 majority, a Republican gain of 16.

Dalton Town, Wayne County, gives Browne 8 majority, a Republican loss of 11.

The Republicans at Midnight Claimed the State by 2,000.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 8.—It is now midnight, and the returns yet in do not cover the vote of over two counties.

The returns so far are such as not to indicate the result positively.

Col. Foster, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, claims the State by 2,000 majority.

The result on either side cannot be known until soon to-morrow.

NEBRASKA.

The Republican State Ticket Elected by 5,000 Majority—Scrubends Beaten in Their Strongholds.

OMAHA, Nebraska, Oct. 8.—The election passed off quietly. A full vote was polled. The Republican State and Congressional ticket was elected by about 5,000 majority.

This (Douglass) county, considered a Liberal stronghold, gives a Republican majority of about 180.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis and Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9—1 A. M.—In New-England the weather has cleared, with northerly to westerly winds and rising barometer. Northerly winds, with clear weather, prevail over the Middle States, while from Tennessee to North Carolina, and thence over the South Atlantic States, clear weather, with northerly to easterly winds and southerly to easterly winds continue, with clear weather, over the Lower Ohio and Upper Mississippi Valleys; over the upper lakes, brisk southerly to westerly winds, with partly cloudy weather, prevail, but the low barometer on Lake Superior this afternoon has moved north-eastwardly.

PROBABILITIES.

On the Upper lakes, winds veering to northerly and westerly, with increased pressure and clearing weather on Wednesday; on the Lower lakes, southerly to westerly winds, diminished pressure and cloudy weather; for the New-England and Middle States, northerly winds veering to north-easterly with generally clear and cool weather; for the South Atlantic and Gulf States, northerly and easterly winds, high barometer, and clear weather, excepting occasional cloudiness on the Gulf; in the Mississippi and Lower Ohio Valleys, partly cloudy weather and southerly to westerly winds.

Reports from the Gulf and everywhere west of the Mississippi Valley are missing.

THE REGISTRY.

First Day of the Registration in this City—A Large Enrollment of Voters Yesterday.

The precautions taken by the authorities to insure a quiet and orderly conduct of the business of registration, yesterday, were entirely successful, and despite the very stringent regulations under which voters are now compelled to register, no delay nor any disturbance of a serious nature occurred at any of the Boards of Registry throughout the City. Of United States officers, Deputy Marshals and special deputies appointed to supervise the work, there were 1,100 in all; and if it should prove that this number is not sufficient, more will be appointed. In some of the lower parts of the City, notorious for the repeating and other frauds practiced in them, four or five deputies were on duty at each place of registry. These were furnished with a printed code of instructions, in which their powers and duties were strictly and minutely defined. The work of registry commenced at 8 A. M., and closed at 9 P. M. The principal difficulty in the conduct of it arose from the stringency with which the provisions of the new Registry law were enforced. In all cases foreign-born citizens were required to produce their naturalization papers before they were allowed to register, and the offer of the applicants to take oath that he was a bona fide citizen, was invariable refused. Another requirement intended to place an additional obstacle in the way of repeaters was the demand that every voter registering from a tenement-house should state the floor in it on which he resided. It was noticeable that of the foreign element of the Twenty-second population and eyesores Germans presented themselves provided with the necessary papers of citizenship in nearly every case, while the happy-go-lucky Irishman, in nine cases out of ten, had either lost his, or forgotten them, or didn't know they were wanted, and had left them at home. All these and standing the delays arising from this and other difficulties, the work proceeded with all the dispatch to be expected.

In the First, Second, Third and Fifth Wards, comprising the First Assembly District, the registration passed off very quietly. Several persons who presented themselves refused to take the oath required by the law, and consequently were not registered. Many others were turned away, not being able to produce evidence of a satisfactory nature to show that they were duly naturalized citizens. In the Seventh, Eighth, and Fifteenth Districts a few colored men were registered, their number was not, however, over twenty-five. The registration throughout this Assembly District promises to be one of the largest ever known to take place.

In the Fourth Ward the number registered was quite as large as it usually has been on the first day, although numbers were refused registry for satisfactory reasons. In the Sixth, despite the long-enjoyed reputation for turbulence, no disturbances were reported, and no arrests were made for attempted infringement of the Election law. The number refused registry for want of satisfactory proof of citizenship was quite large; still the books showed a goodly array of names at the close of the day's labors.

The Seventh Ward presented a singular scene of quietness, strongly contrasting with the scenes of noisy violence on such occasions in former years, when this Ward was the stronghold of the "Boss." Nothing occurred to disturb the routine of the day's business. In the Eleventh a large number were registered, but not as many as would have done so were the regulations less strict. This Ward has a very mixed population, composed principally of Teutons and Celts; and the latter suffered largely by their inability to produce their register papers. The Eighteenth Ward presented a similar scene, but after 7 in the evening the number of applicants considerably increased, and gave the registering boards some appearance of activity.

The Seventeenth Ward, which is one of the most populous in the City, did not show a very heavy list. The inspectors waited in their places counts as to how it compared with past years, but agree that for the first day it bids fair for a large registry.

In the Twentieth, Twenty-second and Twelfth Wards the registration was, on the whole, very light, especially in the up-town districts west of Central Park. In the eastern districts of the Nineteenth Ward it was rather large, but in the western business was so dull that the guardians of the peace stationed at the registry places went to sleep over it. In the Twenty-first Ward, from 7 to 9 o'clock, there was quite a fair list, larger than in the first day of registry in any previous year. This Ward is reported to be a stronghold of O'Brien, and his supporters swarmed around the places of registry. To their efforts the large number registered is doubtless to be ascribed. The registry will be continued on the 16th, 25th and 26th instant.

The following table shows the number of qualified voters who registered their names in this City yesterday:

Assembly Districts.	No. of voters registered yesterday.	Assembly Districts.	No. of voters registered yesterday.
First	258	Twelfth	258
Second	220	Thirteenth	378
Third	220	Fourteenth	178
Fourth	278	Fifteenth	267
Fifth	306	Sixteenth	294
Sixth	211	Seventeenth	327
Seventh	224	Eighteenth	324
Eighth	236	Nineteenth	134
Ninth	280	Twentieth	253
Tenth	8,30	Twenty-first	4904
Eleventh	276
Total			7764

The total number of voters who registered on the first day of registration last year was 39,736. The total registry yesterday shows an increase of 32,738. The next day for registration will be Wednesday, the 16th inst.

Cigar-Makers on a Strike—Threatened Closing of the Manufactories.

HAVANA, Oct. 8.—The workmen in the Havana cigar manufactories have inaugurated a strike for higher wages. This morning only the Santiagos and a few smaller manufacturers were working. The strike is peaceful, there being no disturbances. The manufacturers met on Saturday and decided to close all the factories in case the workmen of one factory refused to work at the present rates, but the agreement had not gone into effect when the strike occurred, which anticipated it. It is generally considered that the strike will finally result in the bankruptcy of the smaller manufacturers; that only the large establishments will remain, and that the manufacture of cigars from Havana tobacco will increase abroad.

The Governor of Havana will preside at a meeting of the cigar-makers this evening for the purpose of arranging the difficulty between them and their employers.

The Havana newspapers, in commenting on the report, Spain intended to claim damages from the United States for the ravages of the American fillibuster steamers, think that Spain is justified in doing so, and that the case against the United States is on an equal footing with that of the Alabama claims against England.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The most important auction held at the Exchange yesterday, Tuesday, Oct. 8, was that in charge of E. R. Hazard, Jr., who, by order of the Supreme Court, in partition, under the direction of Grafa Nathan, Esq., referee, disposed of the premises known as No. 10 West Fourteenth-street, south side, 275 feet west of Fifth-avenue, embracing a lot 25 by 103.2, with four-story brick house (front trimmed with brown-stone) thereon, for $30,000, the purchaser being Mr. Wm. Moser. The property was sold in fee, having been formerly owned by the Suingler estate, and the price was considered fair when the fact is considered that the terms of sale required the entire purchase money to be paid within thirty days. Competition was quite brisk, a large number of operators being in attendance, and from $20,000, the first bid made, the price advanced to the sale sum noted. E. H. Ludlow & Co. offered at public auction the four-story and basement high-stoop brown-stone house and lot, No. 213 East Fifteenth-street, north side, 175 feet east of Third-avenue, but the market failed to respond, and the property was withdrawn upon a bid of $20,000. Muller, Wilkins & Co. also offered at public auction a brick house, with fourteen lots of land, situate on Lafayette-avenue, 200 feet south of Lewis-avenue, Brooklyn, and thirty-two building lots adjoining and in the immediate vicinity, but with no very great success, only two of the lots being sold, viz.: One lot 20 by 100, on the southwest corner of Green and Lewis avenues, sold for $1,005, and one lot, same size, on the northwest corner of the same avenues, sold for $1,000, both purchased by R. Feltman. For the house and grounds no bid was received, and the unsold lots were bid in for the owner at prices ranging from $550 to $700 each. No other business was transacted. In reference to the suburban auctions held yesterday, namely, at College Point, Long Island, and Westport, Conn., by Jere. Johnson, Jr., and at Ridgefield, N. J., by A. D. Mellick, Jr., & Brother, reports will be made to-morrow.

The sale at Brick Church Station, Orange, N. J., on Monday, Oct. 7, conducted by A. D. Mellick, Jr., & Brother was well attended, and all the property offered, consisting of sixty-two villa plots, in size each 50 by 175, was sold for $22,538 in the aggregate. The plots front respectively on Prospect, Hamilton and Mulberry streets, Morris and Lloyd avenues, and were all purchased by local buyers. They were sold by the foot front, and the prices ranged from $4 to $30 per foot. The sale was one in partition, by order of the heirs to the estate of Geo. W. Freeman, deceased.

To-day, at the Exchange, City real estate will be offered at auction, as follows: By A. J. Bleecker, Son & Co., three brown-stone front houses and lots on the north-east corner of Fourth-avenue and Eighty-fifth-street, and a house and lot on East Fifty-seventh-street, near Second-avenue. By E. A. Lawrence, the house and lot No. 45 East Twenty-second-street, near Fourth-avenue—all legal sales. The following suburban auctions are also advertised for to-day: By A. D. Mellick, Jr., & Bro., at Pleasantville, Westchester County, on the ground, at 12 M., sale of 125 lots and villa plots. Special train from Grand Central Depot at 10:40 o'clock. By R. R. Hazard, Jr., at North Manersann Island, Rye, Westchester County, on the premises, at 12 M., sale of twenty-three acres of land, with buildings, &c., formerly the residence of Gen. Dix. Trains from Twenty-seventh-street Depot New-Haven Railroad, at 9 and 10 o'clock. By Jere. Johnson, Jr., at Whitestone, Long Island, on the property, at 12½ P. M., sale of 100 lots and water front, forming the balance of the Blackwell tract of land. Excursion steamer Thomas Collyer, from Peck-slip, at 11½ o'clock. All these sales are well worthy attention.

At private sale, Wm. H. Raynor, No. 5½ Pine-street, reports having recently sold four lots on the south side of One Hundred and Thirty-first-street, with two lots in rear on the north side of One Hundred and Thirtieth-street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, six lots in all, each 25-by ⅜ the block, for $6,250 per lot. The following recent private sales of country property are also reported, made by Messrs. Luckey & Shute, No. 78 Cedar-street:

NOTICE.

SALE OF TIMBER BERTHS.

DEPARTMENT OF CROWN LANDS,
TORONTO, Aug. 1, 1872.

A sale, by public auction, of timber berths, on the north shore of Lake Huron, and north of French River, will be held at the Department of Crown Lands, Toronto, at 12 noon, on TUESDAY, the 15th day of October next. The berths to be offered for sale are projected townships, estimated at an area each of thirty-six square miles where the outlines are regular; each township to be put up as one berth, and sold as such, and to be adjusted to the person binding the highest amount of bonus per square mile thereto; payment for the same to be made on the 1st day of sale, by depositing the amount of purchase to the credit of the Department of Crown Lands, in a bank authorized to receive deposits on account of the Government of Ontario.

All berths sold to be subject to correction with respect to area, under the first clause of the Crown Timber Regulations.

Licenses for Berths sold will be issued subject to the "Crown Timber Regulations" one month after date of sale, and payment of bonus and ground-rent for current season.

No deductions from area sold, allowed for water.

The Department reserves the right to one bid on each Berth; and also the right to grant special licenses to cut fuel on the Berths sold, for the supply of passing steamers.

A map showing the Berths to be disposed of may be seen at the Woods and Forests' Office Department Crown Lands on and after the 15th inst.

R. W. SCOTT, Commissioner.

NOTE.—The area to be offered as Timber Berths is exceptionally large, embracing all unsold and unlicensed lands of the Crown north of Lake Huron and north of French River, and west of the Indian Reserve on Lake Nipissing, to the eastern boundary of the townships of Awarne and Vaux Counties, extending north from the Indian Reserve on Lake Nipissing, an estimated distance of twenty-four miles, thence due west to the north-east angle of the township of Vaseocentres.

Maps of the Territory are for sale by Messrs. Copp, Clark & Co., No. 17 King-st. East, Toronto.

LITTLE SPRINGS HOTEL AT PUBLIC SALE.—Will be sold by the undersigned on FRIDAY, Oct. 18, 1872, at 12 M., the famous Summer resort and hotel property known as the "Litus Springs Hotel," G. T. JOCKEY CLUB RACES.

Third Day of the Fall Meeting—A Good Attendance and Fine Sport.

No business man who has been tied to the desk from boyhood till he is so old and worn out that there is some danger of the fastenings snapping if he is not carefully supported or removed, believes in horse-racing and other out-of door recreations. But his sons and grandsons do, and in time the amusement takes its proper place, side by side with business, without unduly encroaching on it. See history. In Mr. Pepys' diary for the month of June, 1668, is an entry that a great horse-race which was to have been run on Banstead Downs, in Surrey, was postponed to some future occasion "because the Lords do sit in Parliament today." On the 6th of May, 1790, the first of the great annual race-meetings at Epsom was held; and a quarter of a century are the late Lord George Bentinck succeeded in carrying by a large majority, a motion that Parliament should adjourn over the Derby day. From that time to the present day, the same motion has been formally put by the Lord Chancellor and the Speaker, and formally passed by the House. Lords and Commons, as regularly as the Derby day comes round. So it was yesterday with our New-York citizens. Momentous events in which the majority of them took paramount interests, were happening in Pennsylvania, in Ohio, and in Indiana; but that did not prevent them from spending a couple of hours on so at Jerome Park, and enjoying the races which the Jockey Club had arranged for them. They could enter heartily into the racing without forgetting the all-important elections; and a purely Democratic vote—a vote by common consent—was apparently passed, nem. con., to adjourn from the political to the racing arena between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The rain of the night before did not appear to have interfered with the course as far as good running was concerned; and although the clubhouse and grand stand were not so crowded as they were on Saturday, the fine morning and the programme drew, not as the lecturers say, a vast audience, but a large attendance of spectators.

THE ANNUAL SWEEPSTAKES.

The day's sport began with the annual sweepstakes for three-year-olds, $300 each, $100 forfeit, and $1,000 added; two miles. There were thirty-five entries, five of which were marked on the card as starters, but only three came to the post, viz.: D. McDaniel & Co.'s ch. c. Joe Daniels, by imp. Australian, out of Dolly Carter, by imp. Glencoe; also ch. c. Bobbard, by Planet, out of Minnie Mansfield, by imp. Glencoe, and T. G. Bacou's ch. c. by Jack Malone, out of Sea Breeze, by imp. Albion. The race was considered an easy thing for the McDaniels stable, which was sold in the pools for $250, and the Sea Breeze colt for $25. Joe Daniel was then left out of the pools, and the betting was chiefly between Hubbard and the Sea Breeze colt, Hubbard bringing $130 and the other $75.

THE RACE.

They started away, close together, but on the turn Joe Daniels went to the lead two lengths, the Bacon colt second, three lengths ahead of Hubbard. At the quarter-pole they were in the same position, two lengths apart, but coming under the hill Joe Daniels showed three lengths in front of Bacon, who was a length in the lead of Hubbard. They went out of sight in this manner, but on reappearing Joe Daniels was but a length ahead of the Bacon colt, who was two lengths away from Hubbard. At the three-quarter pole they were two lengths apart, but coming up the homestretch the Bacon colt closed up and headed Joe Daniels, but as they finished the first mile the latter was a neck in front, and Hubbard four lengths behind. At the turn again Daniels got away by a length and he led two lengths at the quarter-pole, Hubbard now being but two lengths behind. As they came under the hill the Bacon colt made a turn and lapped Joe Daniels, and as they went out of sight the latter was half a length in front of Bacon's colt, who was three lengths away from Hubbard. On their reappearance Hubbard was in the second position and the Bacon colt was beaten. At the three-quarter pole Joe Daniels was four lengths in front of Hubbard, who was a length ahead of the Bacon colt. At the finish Joe Daniels was a half length ahead of Hubbard, Bacon's colt six lengths behind. Time, 3:45¾.

THE THREE-QUARTERS.

The second event was a dash of three-quarters of a mile for a purse of $500, for two-year olds, and ten were marked as starters, viz.: Glenn & Co.'s ch. c. Meradoc, by imp. Australian, out of Calina's dam; J. W. Pennock's ch. c. by Planet, out of Rebecca; Col. Sanford's ch. c. by Planet, out of Rebecca; Col. Sanford's ch. c. by Planet, out of Rebecca; Col. Sanford
